People Flee As Hurricane Nears Coast

Louisiana Gets Ready As Gale Winds Move In

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Fringe winds of gigantic hurricane Hilda neared the low-lying Louisiana coast today and speeded up an orderly exodus of more than 100,000 residents. Louisiana Cajun country and part of the upper Texas Coast were abandoned to approaching Hilda.

At noon, Hilda was 180 miles off the coast, with 150-mile-an-hour winds in the center and gale winds up to 73 miles an hour extending for as much as 200 miles north and east. It was 235 miles south-southwest of New Orleans traveling north at seven miles per hour.

40-FOOT SEAS

Residents of the southwest tip of the Mississippi Gulf Coast were ordered to evacuate today although the weather bureau said the coastal Mississippi area was in no immediate danger.

Forty-foot seas rose in the gilf and lashed abandoned offshore oil rigs. Skies over southern Louisiana darkened as the prelude to the storm.

Officials ordered people out of seven Louisiana parishes (counties). Morgan City with 13,500 residents and Franklin with 8,700 were becoming ghost towns. The Southern Pacific sent in boxcar freight trains to help bring them out.

73 SHELTERS

The Red Cross said 73 shelters in 12 inland parishes had been set up, some as far as 75 miles in from the coast. Another 102 shelters were ready in Texas.

Sabine and Sabine Pass, Tex., emptied. The 200 residents moved inland.

The Red Cross was flying 10,000 cots and 20,000 blankets from Atlanta to New Orleans, more aid shipments were coming from Texas and the U. S. Department of Agriculture ordered food supplies sent.

Cycle Rider Falls, Dies Under Truck's Wheels

Fatality Is 33rd In 1964

An 18-year-old College of Marin student was thrown from a motorcycle yesterday to death under the wheels of a following truck.

Paul Lucien Sarlatte of 17 Eton Way, Mill Valley, was riding as a passenger on a motorbike operated by Edward Gierman, 30, a carpenter who has been living with the Sarlattes.

Gierman had just topped the hill north of the Greenbrae interchange on Highway 101 at 1:23 p.m. yesterday when his northbound cycle wobbled.

STRUCK BEHIND

Tooling along behind was Wilber R. Manson, 48, of Napa, at the wheel of a two-trailer Basalt Rock Co. aggregate truck.

The cycle swerved and flipped over, throwing both Gierman and young Sarlatte to the roadway.

Manson told the California Highway Patrol he applied brakes and pulled to the right, but could not avoid hitting Sarlatte.

Gierman, not hit by the truck, suffered head injuries. He was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

24 LAST YEAR

Sarlatte's death was the 33rd in Marin County traffic this year. Twenty-four were killed in traffic accidents in the county during the corresponding period last year.

Young Sarlatte was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Sarlatte. His father is a building contractor.

He attended Tamalpais and Redwood High School before enrolling at College of Marin.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Magendie and Malfanti Funeral Directors, San Francisco.

Texas Cowboy Still Waiting To Cross Span

Cowboy Justin LittleBit was still waiting today for permission to ride his horse, Dandy Cody, across the Golden Gate Bridge; but he had a chance to sell the horse.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown met LittleBit yesterday while campaigning in Marin County, and promised to help him get special permission from the Golden Gate Bridge District for the ride across the span — which would culminate a 6,000-mile journey for horse and rider. But nothing had happened on that today.

However, LittleBit said he received a call from a man who said he worked for Sally Stanford, and who asked if he wanted to sell Dandy Cody.

"I said, 'Well, I don't know. What kind of a price do you put on a horse like that?' LittleBit reported. "It ain't every day a horse travels 6,000 miles.

"I'd have to think about that a long time. Me and him been through a lot."

LittleBit has been bedding down at the Sausalito apartment of Dave McLain, a KGO-TV newsman, and the television station has been promoting his cause.

The Southern Marin Horsemen's Assn. today confirmed that LittleBit would appear at its meeting at Edna Maguire School tonight, after being treated to dinner, and that Dandy Cody would get a new set of shoes tomorrow.

LittleBit said the horse probably does not need new shoes now, although his old ones are pretty thin, but he was grateful, nevertheless. He said that if

DREAM COME TRUE?

Children Cheering For Horse, Rider

The glory of dreaming of great deeds—is something any youngster knows all about.

The dream of Justin LittleBit, Texas cowhand who wants to ride his horse Dandy Cody across the Golden Gate Bridge, is a vision that has found a warm place in the hearts of Marin children and adults alike.

That dream just has to come true, the fourth grade youngsters in the class of Deer Park School teacher Ann Solinsky decided yesterday. So, they sat down and composed a letter to the Independent-Journal about it.

In 27 copies, each written in earnest penmanship (some not finished because the school day ended too soon, but sent in anyway) the pupils recited how they read the saga of the part-Indian horseman with his dream and his 6,000-mile journey that has been frustrated by rules against riding a horse across the bridge.

"We are very upset and unhappy," the fourth-graders wrote, "that he and Dandy Cody could not cross the 'beautiful' Golden Gate Bridge. We want them to be able to go across the Golden Gate Bridge because they came 6,000 miles and they should be able to finish their dream.

"Our class thinks the people of California should let them finish their dream."

NWP Files For New Hearing With PUC On Tunnel Order

Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co. yesterday filed with the California Public Utilities Commission a petition for rehearing on the PUC's Sept. 22 order that the Puerto Suello tunnel must be reopened and trains rolling by next April 17.

The 43-page document also asks a stay of the PUC order that repairs must begin within 30 days to the tunnel that partly collapsed in a fire on July 22, 1961.

In a "side spur" issue, the railroad's attorneys also protested the PUC's Sept. 23 ruling that the line must pay maintenance costs for a flashing signal ordered for a future grade crossing on Civic Center Drive. A petition for rehearing and oral argument was filed.

Key portions of the railroad's petition on the Puerto Suello tunnel controversy allege that the state body issued its "get 'em rolling" order without making the necessary findings that resumption of service is in the public interest. The railroad also contends there is no evidence the tunnel repairs can be completed by the deadline, and that the correct procedure in the controversy calls for action in the district court rather than by the PUC.

A move to seek disqualification of the PUC itself to act in the case is contained in a review of the transcript of earlier hearings on the issue. That document, the Northwestern Pacific alleges, contains a statement by one commissioner that the railroad had "better get on with it because the commission is quite concerned with the 'public be damned' attitude" of the company.

Railroad attorney Randolph Karr of San Francisco also asked for a stay because his client has pending an appeal before the United States Supreme Court from a Federal district Court decision upholding Interstate Commerce Commission ruling that the railroad line cannot be abandoned.

The high court's ruling on the appeal is expected this month.

U.S. Drops Charges In Russ Spy Case

NEW YORK (UPI) — Acting "in the interest of national security," the government today mysteriously dropped espionage charges against an alleged husband-and-wife spy team accused of stealing vital U.S. defense secrets for Russia.

Alexandre Sokolov, 40, and the woman, known only by the alias of Joy Ann Baltch, 34, and believed to be his wife, wept as Federal Judge Frank F. Dooling told them they were free.

Congress Leaving Bills Up In Air

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional leaders today wrote off contested Social Security and Appalachia aid bills today and prepared to adjourn the 88th Congress tomorrow night.

Speaker John W. McCormack announced that the Senate-approved one billion dollar Appalachia bill would not be called up in the House before adjournment. He said Congress already had compiled a historic record.

A few minutes earlier, House-Senate conferees deadlocked again on the question of Social Security boosts—to which the Senate had added President Lyndon B. Johnson's medicare plan for the aged. They gave up the struggle for agreement.

McCormack declined to say flatly that shelving of the two key issues would clear the way for adjournment tomorrow.

Airliner Crashes

MADRID (UPI)—A French DC-6 airliner with 80 persons aboard crashed in the sea 45 miles south of the Spanish seaport of Mazarron while on a flight from Paris to Mauretania, the Spanish Air Force announced tonight.

Synanon Head Outlines Aims For Marin Physicians, Gets Ovation

Synanon Foundation is not concerned with drug addiction, one of its directors told a gathering of Marin medical men last night; it is concerned with the character defects that bring about drug addiction.

Jack Hurst, manager of Synanon's installations in San Francisco and at Marshall, described Synanon's operations at the monthly dinner meeting of the Marin Medical Society, and invited the doctors to "come and see for yourselves."

Asked by a doctor whether Synanon's directors consider narcotic addiction an illness or a crime, Hurst shot back:

"These are points we have no interest in . . . We literally have nothing to do with drug addiction . . .

"I view drug addiction as a symptom of stupidity. We approach the addicts from that point of view. The problem is some kind of crazy motion that the world owes you a living."

Hurst was one who had that crazy notion until he entered a Synanon house five and one-half years ago.

"I had a very active nine-year history of drug addiction," he related. "I was in and out of many jails and made several loony bins . . . No one wanted me. Addicts are not very lovable creatures."

Synanon, he declared, "does what it sets out to do—cures what the professionals call a character disorder . . . Synanon houses are not hospitals . . .

"If a person comes into the place where we live and does as we tell him to, we can guarantee him success . . . If he leaves before we tell him to, we can guarantee him failure."

Hurst was bluntly critical of the "gradual withdrawal" approach to narcotic addiction. It simply won't work, he claimed. "These addicts set up a big holler, so you give them a shot of dope. That's what they wanted."

At Synanon, nobody gets a "shot." And there is no violence, he asserted.

What motivation is used to rehabilitate addicts in a place that is neither hospital nor jail? asked one of the doctors.

"Fear," said Hurst.

"A person does not come to Synanon with a desire to get well.

"In Synanon it's very easy to understand that good boys and

Boy, Matches Start Blaze Of $20,000

Fire, started by a small boy in a bedroom closet, caused damage estimated at $20,000 to the rambling home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haber at 16 Heather Way, Mill Valley, today.

Mrs. Haber said that she had just walked by the boys' room where her sons, Bobbie, 5, and Tommie, 16 months, were playing. A few moments later she said she smelled smoke and found that Bobbie had apparently started a fire with matches and paper in a wastebasket in his bedroom closet. The closet was closed, she said.

She rushed the children out of the house and telephoned firemen at 10:32 a.m. Haber was at his office in San Francisco and the Haber's third son, Jimmie, 8, at Park School.

Fire Chief Leslie Armager, who had nine men fighting the blaze, estimated damage to the boys' bedroom, the hall and "extensive" smoke damage throughout the house, at $20,000.

Mrs. Haber said they had just installed a fire alarm system and that, after the fire got to a certain temperature, the alarm went off.

Los Angeles Area Socked In By Fog

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The second thick fog of the season rolled into coastal areas this morning, closing airports and harbors, snarling freeways and shorting out power lines.

Numerous traffic accidents were blamed on the fog, which slowed rush-hour traffic to a snail's pace.

School's 'L' Taken From Hill

A six-by-four foot white log "L" disappeared from a hill in Terra Linda last night, leaving only a lonely "T." It was found early today standing in a vacant lot on Homestead Boulevard near Tamalpais High School.

Raymond J. Bell, Tamalpais vice principal, said that the "L" was apparently removed in dark of night by a delegation infested with spirit over today's 8 p.m. football game between Tamalpais and Terra Linda highs. The game will be played at College of Marin.

Two student officers from Tamalpais returned the "L" this morning.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Leaper Kills Tourist In Paris

PARIS (UPI)—An American woman on her first day of sightseeing in Paris was killed today when she was struck by a French woman who leaped to her death from the north tower of Notre Dame Cathedral.

The American was identified as Veronica McConnell, 24, an X-ray technician from Philadelphia. She was one of a group of tourists who arrived in Paris last night.

The tourists had just left their bus and were walking around the corner of the cathedral when a woman climbed over the balustrade of the north tower of the cathedral and plunged to the ground.

She landed on Miss McConnell. Both women were taken to a hospital across the street, where both died a few minutes later.

Heckler Hits Sir Alec With Egg

LIMEHURST, England (UPI) — An egg thrown by a heckler hit Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home in the back here today.

It splattered over the back of his blue suit, but the prime minister got back into his car apparently ignoring it.

A member of Douglas-Home's party said later that "Sir Alec said he thought someone had given him a rather heavy pat on the back."

The Labor Party also took its lumps. Deputy Party Leader George Brown was heckled Wednesday by a gang of boys from a wealty school who shouted "rubbish!" throughout his speech.

Russ Indonesia Aid

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Russia today announced additional military aid for Indonesia. Authoritative sources said Russian planes already were replacing American-built aircraft grounded since the United States stopped supplying the Indonesian Air Force with spare parts.

Gems Recovered

TURIN, Italy (UPI) — Authorities acting on a tip have recovered a fortune in jewels lost last year in the crash of King Saud's private airliner, police said today. They said the gems were found last night on three Alpine mountain climbers who were searched at a railway station. Police estimated the value of the gems at "tens of thousands of dollars."

Goldberg Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg says he encountered no anti-American sentiment during a 28-day trip around the world. Goldberg, along with Mrs. Goldberg, visited Italy, India, Ceylon, Malaysia, Hong Kong and Japan.

Sen. Hayden Is 87

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.), who has represented Arizona in Congress since it became a state in 1912, celebrated his 87th birthday today.

Mae West Released

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Mae West, 72, has been released from Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, where she underwent treatment for a nervous collapse. Attendants said she was discharged Wednesday. Miss West was admitted Sept. 17.

Clash In Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—Thirty-two persons were injured last night in a street battle between police and Irish nationalists after officers removed the Irish Republic's flag from a building. The injured included 20 policemen.

Sleeping Sickness

CAMDEN, N. J. (UPI)—An epidemic of encephalitis that struck 40 persons and killed two elderly women in southern New Jersey appeared to be under control today. Dr. Roscoe P. Kandle, state commissioner of health, said late last night no new cases had been reported in the last 24 hours.

Fire Under Control

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — The Santa Barbara fire — which destroyed 78 homes and claimed the life of one fireman — was brought under control at dusk yesterday when the last hot spots were extinguished. Three planes are being used as the U. S. Forest Service reseeds the 70,000-acre burn with rye and brome grass.

Three Die In Crash

YUBA CITY (AP) — A car careened off California 20 into a tree yesterday, killing three persons. They were the driver, Israel Louis Putman, and his former wife, Winifred G. Putman, each about 70, and Annette H. Davey, 70, all of Yuba City.

Thrown From Car

EUREKA (AP) — Carl W. McKinnon, 21, of Blue Lake, was thrown out of his car and killed yesterday on U.S. 299, five miles east of Arcata. Highway patrolmen said the car rolled over McKinnon.

Compassionate Visits

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berliners today passed through the wall to East Berlin to attend funerals and weddings and visit sick relatives. Some carried wreaths to place on graves. Others had wedding presents. By noon 108 compassionate passes were issued on the second day of the new agreement.

Fortress Discovered

ROME (UPI) — Archeologists announced yesterday that a Carthaginian fortress had been discovered in Sardinia, on Mount Sirai. It dates back to the Sixth Century B. C.

Yank Dies In Crash

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (UPI) —One American was killed and two others injured today when an Interocean Airways Constellation carrying cargo from Ireland to Ethiopia crashed as it came in for a landing here. The dead man was identified as first officer James Connell.

U.C. POLICE ROUST DEMONSTRATORS

University of California police lift demonstrator at Berkeley campus yesterday during a free speech demonstration. A mob of 3,500 students continued to defy U.C. officials today in the wild demonstration that included the wrecking of a police car. The trouble began after police arrested non-student Jack Weinberg, 24, for trespassing. They said he refused to stop soliciting funds for off-campus political activities despite several warnings. The university has banned such solicitations. Eight students were expelled Tuesday. (AP Wirephoto)

Viet Reds Take Over Road 20 Miles North Of Saigon

SAIGON, Vietnam (UPI)—Communist Viet Cong guerrillas took over a section of a major highway only 20 miles north of Saigon Wednesday night and challenged the Vietnamese government to get them out.

More than 24 hours later they were still checking every vehicle to pass through the strategic hamlet of Thoi Hoa. The government had made no move to uproot them.

Eyewitnesses said at least 1,000 persons had passed through the Communist checkpoint without being molested except for a check of credentials.

The roadblock is on national Highway 13, main artery for traffic north of the capital. The Communists extended the Hamlet's defensive moats most of the way across the road, leaving a passage wide enough only for bicycles and pedestrians.

Just three miles south is a government militia post. But as of last night it had not budged.

The Communists troops manning the roadblock looked about 20 years old or younger. They were wearing everything from army field dress to blue denims old-fashioned, bolt-action Russian or Chinese rifles. Their political officer, an unsmiling type in slacks, had a bag of rice under his white shirt—the only sign of his nomadic mission as a rebel leader.

He said he had written a letter to the local authorities challenging them to get rid of the road block. He said he intended to keep it there permanently.

A traffic jam of trucks and three-wheel jitney buses soon extended half a mile south of the roadblock. Passengers had to get out and walk through the checkpoint with their bundles, bags and crates of chickens, and pick up another bus on the other side.

Despite the inconvenience, most travelers treated the necessity of changing buses as a holiday affair. They laughed and joked among themselves and with the young Viet Cong soldiers.

The Viet Cong were not levying highway tolls on the travelers, as they often do. But the roadblock was a continuing embarrassment to the Saigon government as long as it stood.

Longshoremen Ordered Back

NEW YORK (AP) — The International Longshoremen's Assn., AFL-CIO, ordered its 60,000 striking dockworkers to return to work at Atlantic and Gulf ports at 7 p.m. today.

The move complied with a federal court restraining order last night halting the strike for 10 days in the national interest.

Before the meeting of union officials to set in motion the machinery for obeying U.S. Dist. Judge Frederick vanPelt Bryan's order, ILA President Thomas W. Gleason said: "We all went out together and we'll all go back together."

Life Newsman Killed

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — James Burke, Life magazine correspondent, was killed today in an accidental fall near Bomdila in the northeast frontier agency which borders on Communist China, according to reports reaching here. Burke had stepped out of his jeep to take a picture, slipped and fell down a mountainside, it was reported.

Red Tourists Flee

VIENNA (UPI)—Three tourists from Communist Hungary fled their tour Wednesday and asked for asylum here, police said yesterday. They were a tour leader, 43, a man of 23, and a 19-year-old secretary.

Anti-Riot Gas Use 'Withheld'

TARZANA (AP) — A State Assemblyman who said he was a World War II chemical warfare specialist charges that President Lyndon B. Johnson deliberately kept a powerful riot-control gas under wraps during last summer's outbreaks of mob violence.

Republican Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad said that the gas is O-chlorobenzalmalonitrile, known as CS gas. He said he has experienced the gas in tests and found it causes a severe burning sensation in the respiratory passages, but has no harmful after effects.

The Army is now taking tear gas out of its inventory and substituting CX, Conrad told an audience of Republicans here last night. He said the new gas is more effective than tear gas.

It was used during the Cambridge, Md., riots last year, Conrad said. He told the group:

"The Johnson administration had this report on its use there before it throughout all of the so-called 'long, hot summer,' when riots in Philadelphia, New York and Rochester occurred.

"If President Johnson felt that such riots were 'a matter of national concern . . .' " then why didn't he tell the American people about the new technique that broke up the riot in cambridge, Md.?"

Red Cross Thanks Teeners For Their Volunteer Work

The thousands of hours of volunteer service donated by 247 Marin County teen-agers received grateful recognition from the Red Cross last night.

The Marin County chapter of Red Cross held recognition night ceremonies in San Rafael High School auditorium, following a demonstration at the school pool, marking the 50th year of the Marin County water safety program.

Certificates, special awards and leadership scholarships were handed to the volunteers by Mrs. Donald Chapman, chapter recognition charman, and Mrs. William R. Eastman, coordinator of youth volunteers. Bert C. Corona, superintendent of San Rafael schools and chairman of educational relations for the Red Cross chapter, spoke.

Mistress of ceremonies was Mary K. Stroube, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Stroube, of Mill Valley. She is the newly elected chairman of the county's high school Red Cross activties.

Special speakeds included Jacklyn McCarty, daughter of Mrs. Ruth T. McCarty, of Mill Valley, and Dr. Moreland Fort, Red Cross director of educational relations for nine western states.

The young volunteers honored last night come from all Marin County high schools, and underwent intensive training. They worked through the summer at Alderson, Center Medical, Hamilton Air Force Base, Marin Rehabilitation, Sonoma State and Terra Linda Valley hospitals, as well as the Marin Aid to Retarded Children program.

Chapter Chairman Donald A. Chapman presented special awards for outstanding services to Daryl A. Hopkins, Santa Venetia; Mrs. Jack B. Kaufman, San Anselmo, and Phillip de Fremery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert de Fremery, Ross.

Five-year service pins went to Shirley Cowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cowan, of San Rafael; Joyce La Fontaine, daughter of Mrs. Helen La Fontaine of San Rafael; and Amanda Hyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hyman of San Anselmo.

Marinwood Fire Aide Appointed

Wayne Campbell of 2145 Las Gallinas Avenue was approved to the Marinwood Fire Commission last night to fill the vacancy created last month by resignation of Sidney E. Hoydal.

Commissioners discussed ways of improving the district's fire insurance rating, including the possibility of adopting a new fire code. They are also considering means of improving communications between paid and volunteer firemen and were given a demonstration of a communication system last night.

Commissioners announced that annual physical examinations for all firemen, paid and volunteer, will be given next month.

The meeting was adjourned until Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the firehouse for a special session to discuss the fire code.

Stabbed Inmate's Condition Good

A San Quentin Prison inmate who was stabbed six times by an unknown assailant shortly after noon yesterday was reported in good condition today at the prison hospital.

The victim, Maynard Berry, 26, serving a three-year to life term for kidnaping and rape in Los Angeles County in 1961, suffered superficial knife wounds on his arms, back and chest.

A prison-made knife with a seven-inch blade was found shortly after the attack near the stairs connecting the lower and upper prison yards where Berry was found unconscious. He said he was unable to identify his attacker.

Air Force Basic

Airman Buford W. Gilliland, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Gilliland of 835 Wilmac Avenue, Novato, has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex. He has been selected for training as a vehicle maintenance specialist at Chanute AFB, Ill.

Officers Nominated By Medical Society

Dr. Robert L. Mills, Ross plastic surgeon is assured the presidency of the Marin Medical Society in 1966.

Mills was unopposed for president-elect as nominations closed at last night's meeting of the society at the Meadow Club above Fairfax. The president-elect automatically moves up to president the following year.

Dr. Ira Degenhardt, current president-elect, will take over as president from Dr. Calvin Plumhof in January.

In contrast to last year, when there were hard-fought contests for some of the medical society offices, no nominees were put forward other than the slate proposed by the nominating committee.

Assured of election (barring a write-in campaign) besides Mills are Dr. Robert F. Schell of San Rafael, for vice president; Doctors John C. Lee of Novato, Duval B. Jaros of Greenbrae, for delegate to the California Medical Assn., and Dr. James M. Stubblebine of Mill Valley, for alternate delegate.

Dr. Harry N. Hensler urged that medical society members support Dr. Gwendolyn Campion for the Marin Hospital District board in the Nov. 3 general election, as the only doctor running for the board. Dr. Robert J. Alderson urged votes also for George E. Croke Jr. for the hospital board.

Ross School Board To Canvass Ballots

Ross School District board will hold a special meeting at 8:15 p.m. Monday to canvass ballots cast in the Sept. 15 election in which a $350,000 bond issue was approved for expansion of district facilities.

Authorization of preparation of necessary documents for the bond issue is scheduled.

Couple Injured As Auto Strikes Deer On Highway

A man and his wife were slightly injured yesterday evening when their car hit a deer on Highway 101 a mile north of the Greenbrae interchange.

Fred Brown, 26, of 205 Wickham Drive, Mill Valley, and his wife, Joan, 22, were treated at Marin General Hospital, Brown for cuts on right hand and his wife for a cut chin.

Brown told California Highway Patrol officers he was driving north at about 6:30 p.m. when he saw the deer crossing the highway. He said he started to slow but the deer stopped on the divider strip, then as he speeded up, the animal jumped in front of the car. The deer was knocked to the side of the road, killed instantly.

Barotseland, which has 313,000 people and 44,920 square miles, is about half the size of Idaho.

ANCIENT BELVEDERE BONES—Part of a skeleton was unearthed in Belvedere today as workers constructed a swimming pool at 9 North Point Circle. Wood Salesmn Gets Fine—Short Delivery

A Sleepy Hollow woman doesn't know what a cord of wood is, but she knows when it isn't.

Last Sept. 10, Mrs. Louie Vyvijal, 40 Green Valley Court, took delivery of a "cord" of oak firewood and gave the Santa Rosa deliveryman, Jerry Flowers, a $30 check in full payment after being assurred three times it was a cord.

Later, she said, she again studied the wood pile. Two years ago she had seen a cord of wood and it was bigger. This "cord" wasn't. Her husband, when he came home that evening, didn't think so, either.

They called Kenneth R. Brown, county director of weights and measures. Brown measured and reported they had one-third of a cord.

Mrs. Vyvijal stopped payment on the check. Flowers was charged in Marin Municipal Court with a misdemeanor of selling less wood than he represented it to be. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $29 today.

The remaining wood, "two-thirds of a cord, plus," was delivered yesterday, Mrs. Vyvijal said, and she cleared the check.

She now knows a cord is a pile eight feet long, four feet high and four feet wide. If this is difficult, it is also 128 cubic feet of wood. If this is still difficult, Brown as a tape measure.

VICE COMMANDER — Brig. Gen. Carroll W. McColpin has been named vice commander of the 28th Air Division with headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base. He replaces Col. Oliver G. Cellini, who will become chief of staff of the 28th. General McColpin has been commander of the Portland Air Defense Sector.

Sewer Annex

Almost the only business at yesterday's routine meeting of the San Rafael Sanitation District directors was a report from manager Norris M. Rawles that the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission has approved plans of a Bayside Acres homeowner to annex his single lot to the district.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Pump Bumps Are A Nuisance; Cataracts Seldom Before 50

VAN DELLEN

Pump bumps are a nuisance to many women. In a few, these bony lumps on the heels are incapacitating and have to be removed surgically.

There must be a congenital element in this disorder because not all women who wear footgear with closely contoured heels develop these growths. Those born with prominent heel bones are more likely candidates. Irritation or bursitis occurs between the tendon Achilles and the heel bone. Relief may follow proper padding, or wearing a different style shoe.

I AM OFTEN asked by readers of this column whether cataract surgery is safe and effective in the elderly. This disorder seldom occurs before age 50. Full development of the cataract varies from months to years, which means that the person is not too young by the time surgery is needed. In suitable cases (those without complicating factors), good if not perfect vision may be expected in the elderly.

The ophthalmologist is careful to examine the candidate for any abnormalities that might lead to an unsuccessful result. Aged people have changes in tissues and organs that must be evaluated and the preoperative preparation of the patient must be meticulous.

A RECENT REPORT from Yugoslavia describes cataract extractions on 33 persons over 80 years of age. Results were considered satisfactory in 23. Those who had arteriosclerotic changes of the retina were not able to see as well after the operation as the 23 more suitable subjects. This is understandable because removing an opaque lens does not improve other defects that coexist.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

MALE CORONARY DISEASE

P. L. writes: Are heart attacks as frequent in men in other countries as in the United States?

REPLY

Not in primitive countries. One reason is that these people die earlier, from other conditions, particularly infections and malnutrition. They don't live long enough to have heart attacks. I would hazard the guess that European men have the same rate of coronary thrombosis as do American males.

ALCOHOL AND SEIZURES

R. L. writes: Could heavy drinking bring on an epileptic seizure in a 43-year-old man?

REPLY

No, but epileptics should avoid alcohol because drinking is likely to aggravate the condition. On the other hand, convulsions may be associated with severe, acute intoxication. In addition, the brain may deteriorate so much in chronic alcoholics that convulsions occur.

LUNACY

H. T. writes: Could a person be affected by the moon? A good friend of mine becomes belligerent when the moon is full. I try to help him at these times but wonder if this is an illness.

REPLY

We no longer implicate the moon in behavioral disturbances. Your friend ought to see a psychiatrist if these spells occur at regular intervals for no apparent reason.

BOWLEGGED TODDLER

Mrs. M. writes: My year-old son is bowlegged. He does not have rickets. Will his legs straighten out in time?

REPLY

The odds are with you. Many toddlers are bowlegged and the legs straighten out as they grow. If this does not take place during the next few years, consult your physician about the use of corrective shoes.

Today's Health Hint — Make this a booster year for injections.

"If you behave like a burglar, you're a burglar. If you behave like a man long enough, that's what you become."

Synanon now has 485 people, and is accepting new ones at the rate of one and three-fourths per day. Its founder, Charles Deiderich, is in Southern California as adviser on a movie depicting its work, being filmed by Columbia Pictures. "When that hits, I don't know what's going to happen."

Despite Synanon's scope (five houses across the U. S. and a Synanon project inside the Nevada State Prison), "we do not have and never have had three days' operating expenses in the till at any time," he said—and expenses are very low, $2.65 per day per person.

The doctors, after probing Hurst with questions for nearly an hour, gave him an ovation.

Burglar Gets $455 In Loot

A burglar, who apparently used a pillow case to haul away his loot, entered the home of William H. Bay at 21 Millay Place, Mill Valley, yesterday and stole a ring, a coin collection and a government check, to total value of $455.

Entry, said Bay, was made between 11:30 a.m. and 3:15 p.m. The burglar broke out both a rear door and bathroom screens.

Missing were a gold wedding band with five diamonds across the crown, valued at $100; a coin collection, $300; a government check for $55; insurance papers in a metal box, and a pillow case.

Scientists All Set For Vacuum Fish

SHELTON, Conn. (UPI) — Scientists have taken an old fishing tool and put it to use in space research.

The familiar fish net now is catching microwaves sent out by radio, radar and other electronic instruments. The netting, appropriately named "Space Net," is coated with special compound developed by B. F. Goodrich Sponge Products here. It absorbs the waves and keeps them from bouncing off walls or other objects, thus helping scientists duplicate the "echo free" environment of outer space.

Driver Was Loaded, Really He Was...

ATLANTA (UPI) — Patrolman J. P. Fitzgerald described a motorist's actions as "abstract driving."

Fitzgerald allowed there was a good reason for the driver's game of "What's My Lane." The driver had 52 gallons of illegal moonshine whisky in his car.

Virus Still Could Be Cancer Cause

By DELOS SMITH

NEY YORK (UPI) — The idea viruses cause cancer in people has received a statistical setback which won't set back the scientists who believe in it one bit. Science has yet to trace even one human cancer to viruses but it is a wholly logical idea.

Viruses do cause cancer in a variety of animals, particularly in rodents and fowls. Of that there can be no doubt whatever. And so cancer-causing viruses are in the natural scheme of things and it is not logical to think they favor any form of life, the human included, by by leaving it alone.

However, Dr. John C. Bailar III is an expert in biometrics and it is his science to put scientific ideas to the acid test of statistical appraisal. He got his basic premises from known facts of animal cancer viruses and of indisputably identified human viruses.

"Newborn and very young animals are much more susceptible to many cancer-producing factors than older animals," he said. "A rapidly decreasing susceptibility with increasing age is particularly marked for several types of virus - induced tumors in animals. Some tumor viruses must be injected in the first 24 hours of life to be effective, even though they do not cause cancer until months or years later."

That was his premise as regards animal cancer visuses. As regards the indisputable human viruses, many of them are markedly seasonal in their assaults. "This is true, for example, for measles, mumps, chicken pox, poliomyelitis and the group of diseases called the common cold," he said.

These premises being entirely factual, it follows that if human cancer viruses exist they could infect more victims during some months or seasons of the years than others and infants and young children would be infected in much larger numbers than adults.

Bailar then constructed a statistical table of 20,451 persons of both sexes who died of cancer of various sites in Connecticut from 1957 to 1961. He used Connecticut figures because its vital statistics have been well kept for over 100 years.

This table showed not only the years but the months in which the cancer victims were born. If cancer viruses had been operating in them and if the viruses had gotten in their fatal if delayed work in their infancies, you could expect more of them to have been born in some seasons if not in some months than in others.

Bailar made three smaller tables, of women who had died of cancers of the reproductive system, of men who had died of lung cancer, and of children who had died of leukemia.

In none of the four tables was there any statistically significant "peaking," either by season or by month, and Bailar could only conclude on this evidence that the month or season in which any given person is born has nothing to do with whether he'll come down with cancer in later life.

Ancient Skeleton Unearthed In Marin

A skeleton from the ancient days of California was uncovered yesterday by a bulldozer in Belvedere.

The big machine pushed aside earth to the rear of 9 North Point Circle to clear space for a swimming pool and uncovered part of an ancient earthenware bowl and the skeleton.

R. E. McCrillis, president of Diamond Pool Co. of San Rafael, today carefully dug out the bones with a trowel, unearthing a pelvis, femures, and vertebrae of an animal or human. The remainder of the skeleton was not found.

The piece of the powl disappeared overnight, following its discovery yesterday afternoon.

The skeleton was found about 10 feet below the normal surface of the earth and below a foot-wide strip of old clam shells, apparently discarded by early California inhabitants.

Also found was a few inches-long pointed implement shaped like a giant needle without an eye and apparently made from the tusk of some animal.

The finds were made at the home of Douglas and Hans King, the same place where in 1957, as land was being excavated for construction of the home, various Indian skeletons, jewelry, bowls and artifacts were found.

The house apparently is constructed on an Indian refuse heap. The earth has a heavy admixture of shells and, above the skeleton, is composed almost solely of shells in what apparently a refuse heap. The house is located directly above the water of Richardson Bay.

No decision on disposition of the "needle" and the portion of skeleton had been made today.

College Gets Contract Plan Based On $15-Million Work

Trustees of Marin Junior College District last night were presented with a proposed new contract with architects Falk and Booth based on 15 million dollars of construction at the Kentfield and North Marin campuses.

The contract would cover a complete master plan for the North Marin campus and completion of construction outlined in the Kentfield campus master plan.

The new contract would provide for a flat $50,000 fee for the construction on the North Marin campus.

College Business Manager Norman Bird presented the contract, saying that the present rate of pay of 7 and one-half per cent of the construction would be cut to an average of 6 and one-half per cent.

Trustee Kent O. Seymour immediately asked that the new contract be put over for more study.

"You're talking about a 15 million dollar project here. We've never discussed that amount before," he commented.

The proposal also sets the ultimate enrollment at the Novato campus at 3,000 students, for master plan purposes. That figure also had not been firmly set by the board.

Bird said the new contract would not apply to projects where preliminary plans have already been approved, such as the music, drama and speech building or the student center.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy said she was unhappy about the procedure of bringing such a contract in and expecting action the same night.

"I want to know the breakdown for spending on the north campus," she said.

"I'd like to compare this contract with other engineering contracts in the Bay Area," said Trustee Robert E. Rogers.

Board President Robert E. Oliver said he was pleased about one feature. The architects have agreed to hire a site planner as a consultant.

But on the sale of the horse, he was still undecided:

The Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District's joint rules and policy committee and security committee are scheduled to hold meetings next Thursday and Friday mornings—but LittleBit's plight is not on their agenda yet, Mrs. Helen Jacks, district secretary, told the Independent-Journal today.

Teen-Age GOP Condemns ADA

Teen-age Republicans of Marin passed a resolution condemning the Americans for Democratic Action at a meeting Wednesday night in the San Rafael courthouse.

Bruce Proctor, president of the teen-age group, said the ADA was condemned for the following reasons:

Because the ADA believes in admitting Red China to the U.N., in abolition of the Loyalty Oath, in abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and because Hubert H. Humphrey is adviser of the ADA.

Pamela Woy of 126 San Marino Drive, San Rafael, was elected editor of the Teen-age Republicans' official publication, "Tar Paper."

Tiburon Fire Action

Henry Kach of 7 Stanton Way, Mill Valley, reported to police at 5:25 p.m. yesterday the theft of a 10 inch table saw mounted on a steel table from a house under construction at 4 Middle Court. Value, said Kach, is $100.

Saw Stolen

Tiburon fire commissioners last night authorized installation of 300 feet of six-inch water main on Centro East Street and installation of a hydrant at the corner of Centro East and Diviso streets.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Rose Bem, 81, Succumbs

Mrs. Rose Bem, 81, a 50-year resident of Marin, died yesterday in a local rest home after a long illness.

Mrs. Bem was the widow of Manual Bem. She was a native of the Azores Islands. Her last home was at 423 Turney Street, Sausalito.

Closest surviving relatives are a niece, Marie Frederickson of San Bruno, and two nephews, Joseph D. Quadros of El Cerrito and Manuel Quadros of Richmond.

Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Monday in Star of the Seas Church, Sausalito, with the funeral cortege forming at 9:15 a.m. at the Frank J. Keaton Mortuary in Sausalito. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

ROBERT DANT

Robert E. Dant, lumber and shipping executive, died in his San Francisco apartment yesterday, apparently of a heart attack. He was 58.

Dant was the father of Charles M. Dant of Tiburon.

The elder Dant was born in 1906 in Portland, Ore., son of pioneer Pacific Coast lumberman Charles E. Dant. Most of his career as a lumberman was spent developing new markets for the lumber and lumber products of his father's companies. He started out in the business as a dock and logging camp worker while he was a college student.

In 1958, after a brief retirement, Dan't founded Dant Investment Corp. and invested heavily in San Francisco real estate.

He was chairman of the board of Dant Forest Products, vice president and director of States Steamship Co., a director of Argonaut Insurance Co. and the Building Owners and Managers Assn. of San Francisco, and an associate of St. Francis Memorial Hospital in San Francisco.

He held membership in the Meadow Club in Marin County, the Commercial Club and St. Francis Yacht Club in San Francisco.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Charles E. Dant; his son; a sister, Mrs. Wilson D. McNary of Vancouver, Wash., and two brothers, Thomas W. Dant of Reno and Jack R. Dant of Atherton.

Funeral will be held Monday in Portland.

LEWIS HUFF

Memorial services for 4-year-old traffic victim Lewis A. (Taddy) Huff will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church, with Rev. Gene W. Burris officiating.

The youngster died yesterday morning of injuries suffered Wednesday when he ran into the path of a car near his Corte Madera home.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Huff Sr., of 122 Willow Avenue, Corte Madera; a sister, Lori, and two grandmothers, Mrs. Frances E. Randall of Corte Madera, and Mrs. Carrie Huff of Ardmore, Okla. He was a native of Marin County.

Burial will be in Abbey Memorial Gardens, near Benicia, Solano County.

The parents have asked that memorial donations be made to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in San Francisco.

NICK JOHNSON

Nick C. Johnson of Mill Valley, a truck dispatcher, died yesterday at his home at 208 Gibson Avenue after a long illness.

Johnson, 54, last worked as a dispatcher for Ken Royce Inc., in South San Francisco. Born in New Jersey, he had lived three years in Marin County and six and one-half years in California.

He is survived by his wife, Mildred Alice Johnson; a brother, James Johnson of Long Beach, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Watson, of Rocky River, Ohio.

Funeral will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael. The family requests that tributes be contributions to the American Cancer Society, Marin County branch.

Directors Ired Over Vandalism

Vandalism at the Sleepy Hollow swimming pool sparked ire at last night's meeting of Sleepy Hollow Homeowners' Assn. directors.

Twice in the last 10 evenings, it was reported, "everything movable" in the way of furniture and other items has been tossed into the pool.

Directors agreed to circulate a plea to neighborhood parents to keep track of teen-agers' whereabouts in the evening, and to help nip in the bud the vandalism that occurred repeatedly last year after the pool closed. The association will prosecute if necessary, it was decided.

Directors approved use of the center for a teen-age club car wash project to benefit UNICEF, and sounded an appeal for parents to volunteer as chaperones for the regular youth dances. More than 50 parents were asked before a volunteer could be found for one recent dance, it was reported.

Art, Music Clubs Slate Installation

Tamalpais High School art and music clubs will hold an installation dinner next Thursday at 6 p.m. in the faculty lunch room.

Following the dinner and ceremony there will be a "coleoptera" party with a tiddypool theme honoring American culture in 1964 and the singing group, the Beatles.

Casting For Play

Terra Linda High School is now casting for its fall dramatic production, "Anastasia," Sally Rupp, faculty adviser, reported. The play is scheduled for performances Nov. 20 and 21 at the school.

Child Care Center Plan Is On Agenda

The Marin County Board of Education will receive the plan for operation of the child care center at Marin City by the county schools office at a meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the Civic Center.

The plan, which involves the public social services and health departments in a joint venture with the schools office, was approved by county supervisors Sept. 22.

The board also is slated to receive a report from Daryl A. Hopkins, director of special services, that facilities for older trainable mentally retarded pupils are near completion at Magnolia Park School at the former county hospital in Lucas Valley.

Hopkins said yesterday that one classroom has opened and the second classroom is expected to be ready next week. Twenty-four pupils are attending the school, he said.

Marin Coin Club Elects

Jack V. Repp of San Rafael is the new president of the Marin Coin Club, succeeding Dr. Robert C. West.

Other new officers are Glenn H. Murray of Larkspur, vice president; Dorothy Sayer of Santa Venetia, secretary; Cora Lohse of San Rafael, treasurer; Charles Richesin of Stockton, auctioneer; Fay Gosser of Mill Valley, publicity chairman, and Robert Foster of Greenbrae, junior representative.

The club, which was formed in July of 1962, now has 96 active members, including 18 junior members. Meetings are held the third Wednsday of each month at Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, at 7:45 p.m., according to Mrs. Gosser.

Three Men Fined $166 For Drunken Driving

Three men were fined $166 each yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

They are Laurence Madison Coy Jr., 19, of 34 Terrace Court, Tiburon, arrested Aug. 5 on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard; Junies Carl Stillwell, 28, Petaluma, arrested Aug. 12 by San Rafael police in the 1600 block of Grand Avenue, and Mario M. Lenzio, 58, San Francisco, arrested Sept. 18 on Highway 101 by California Highway Patrol.

Proposition 14 s Opposed

The Marin County Human Rights Commission last night opposed Proposition 14 on the November ballot, and urged a "no vote."

The vote to oppose the proposition was 15-1, with Joe H. Stewart, president of the Marin County Real Estate Board, dissenting.

Stewart said it was unwise for the commission to enter into this type of political activity and it should not endorse a yes or no vote, commissioner Wyman Hicks reported.

Novato Boy, 6, Struck By Auto

A 6-year-old Novato boy suffered a concussion about 5 p.m. yesterday when he dashed in front of a car at 851 Diablo Avenue, Novato.

Gregory Patrick Durling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brian K. Durling of 1652 Center Road, was in good condition today in Novato General Hospital.

Police reported the boy dashed between two parked cars in front of a southbound car driven by Herman Peter Chiappetta, 27, of 730 Del Mar, Novato.

3 Marinites Enter USF With Honors

Three Marin County students entered University of San Francisco with honors this fall because of their high school scholastic records, it was announced today.

LYNDON GAINS SUPPORT

Hubert Sets Valley Tour, Barry Says LBJ Copycat

COMBINED UPI & AP

Californians said "Hello, Hubert" today after waving "Goodbye, Bill" as the Democratic vice presidential nominee took over from his Republican counterpart in the state political spotlight.

Minnesota Sen. Hubert Humphrey headed for Los Angeles today, and the Democratic campaigner was to roll 300 miles up the San Joaquin Valley tomorrow on an old-fashioned whistle-stop train tour that is all the rage here this year.

Rep. William Miller of New York, the GOP second spot choice, zipped in and out last night. He told a news conference in Los Angeles that he had no objection to having his business affairs looked into. But he added that a Democratic resolution calling on the House of Representatives to investigate his connections with a company in his district was meant only to "waste my time in this campaign answering these absurd charges."

Also yesterday, the head of the Draft Lodge Committee active in the June primary said the group—with a claimed membership of 12,000 in California—now backs President Lyndon B. Johnson, over Republican nominee Barry Goldwater.

The two senatorial hopefuls talked about business — big and small.

Democratic Sen. Pierre Salinger told an Oakland luncheon he's all for the small businessmen, but isn't sure about his opponent, Republican George Murphy.

Murphy talked about the state's biggest industry — agriculture — in Orange County, and declared:

"It is time Pierre Salinger stated exactly where he stands regarding the labor crisis facing California agriculture. Salinger has ducked this important issue long enough.

Prop. 14 continued to generate lively debate, with the president-elect of the California Real Estate Association predicting "the last 30 days of this campaign will be the most violent in California election history."

David N. Robinson of Berkeley, told a San Francisco news conference that Prop. 14 "Win, lose or draw . . . will go to the United States Supreme Court. Wherever a question of constitutionality is concerned, it belongs in the courts and should be decided there."

In New Castle, N.H. former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said yesterday Johnson's foreign policy could lead the United States into a major war in Southeast Asia.

Nixon's charges were leveled during the start of a 36-state visit in an attempt to unify Republicans behind GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

At Cairo, Ill., Goldwater charged today Johnson is copying him on such campaign issues as ending the military draft support for the NATO alliance and assistance for local law enforcement officers.

The Republican presidential candidate called his Democratic opponent "Lyndon-come-lately."

Goldwater made the charge in a speech prepared for delivery in this river city to kick off a two-day whistle stop bid for Illinois' 27 electoral votes. He has listed Illinois, Texas, Ohio, and California as his major campaign targets.

Goldwater said:

"Some weeks ago we pledged to end the unfair and unproductive draft system. What did Lyndon-come-lately have to say? Why, he said, he's been meaning to do the same thing. Of course, Lyndon-come-lately didn't say when . . . but he was trying to catch up."

The president took a day off from campaigning today — but not from politicking.

The chief executive was to meet with a group called the "National Lawyers' Committee for Johnson-Humphrey."

The laweyrs' group includes among its members four former cabinet members, five former presidents of the American Bar Assn. and eight law school deans.

The one time cabinet members are former Army Secretary Kenneth C. Royall, who heads the 58-member organizing committee; former Secretary of State Dean Acheson; former Atty. Gen. Francis Biddle and former Interior Secretary Oscar L. Chapman.

Johnson yesterday received the support of the newly organized women's section of the National Citizens Committee for Johnson and Humphrey. Among its members are a number of prominent Republican women.

He met for nearly an hour with the group and wowed them with a personal briefing about the duties and burdens of the presidency.

Bubbling over with enthusiasm, musical comery star Ethel Merman, said, "everything's coming up Johnson."

Co-chairman Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, publisher of the Houston Post and secretary of health, education and welfare in the Eisenhower administration, praised Johnson as a "prudent man."

In San Francisco U.S. District Judge Stanley Weigel dismissed a taxpayer's suit yesterday which sought to oust Goldwater from the Senate.

The suit charged that Goldwater had violated the Constitution by holding office as a major general in the Air Force Reserve while a member of Congress. The section in question specifically states that no legislator shall hold another government office.

However, Weigel said the plaintiff, San Francisco carpenter Allen R. Schaaf, could not have his case heard because he did not assert that the alleged misbehavior had a direct injury upon him.

Women Voters Aide Resigns

Resignation of Mrs. Walter Neale as finance chairman of the League of Women Voters has been accepted with regret, League President Mrs. William C. Anderson announced today.

Mrs. Neale's husband is to take an active role in this year's political campaign, and the policy of the league requires that board members and their families refrain from partisan political activity during their term of office.

Also accepted was the resignation of Mrs. R. B. Cunningham of Novato as representative to the Leagues of Women Voters of the Bay Area. Mrs. Cunningham resigned because of business commitments.

College Will Be Host For Musical Festival

The College of Marin will be host to the first Ernest Bloch Music Festival, Marin Junior College District trustees decided last night.

The festival will be held on two weekends in April, with orchestral music one week and string quartets the following week, according to the plan presented by Larry Snyder of the college's music department.

Snyder once studied under Bloch's direction in San Francisco, and said he felt the festival in Marin would be appropriate, since Bloch lived in Mill Valley. The composer died in 1959.

Snyder said the event would be the first Bloch festival on the West Coast. Performing for the first concert would be 20 members of the Oakland Symphony Orchestra, including conductor Gerhardt Samuels. Part of the cost for this concert would be borne by the Musicians' Union Trust Fund.

The string concert would feature Bonnie Hampton's String Quartet and Piano.

The board was told that enrollment in the adult evening courses and apprentice program had climbed 2.7 per cent over last year, and that some classes were still filling. Dr. Ellsworth R. Briggs, in charge of the adult program, said the gain came in spite of the fact that some courses were transferred to the daytime and offered for credit.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy asked Briggs to check the courses in sewing and tailoring to learn how many repeaters there were. Briggs said he would but doubted whether repeaters made up a large percentage of the classes.

The Marin Junior College Board Also:

1. Held up action on a request for extra pay for part-time teachers with law degrees to put them on a par with teachers with master's degrees. Mrs. Deedy asked for a study of what other graduate degrees should be included.
2. Voted to send a "strong" letter to the county board of supervisors asking for directional signals at the intersection of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and College Avenue.
3. Learned that only three of the college's five courses in real estate are accepted for credit by the University of California, but that an impending university extension program may accept all five.
4. Toured the facilities, still largely uncompleted, of the physical education complex.
5. Appointed Mrs. Sylvia Barney as library assistant.

Two Treated For Shock After Crash

Two persons were treated for shock yesterday by their doctors following a head-on crash between two cars in Mill Valley at Buena Vista and Carmelita avenues. They are Mrs. A. McKenzie of 62 Alta Vista Avenue and Huron D. Corthell, 71, of 14 Walnut Avenue.

Police said Corthell was driving west on Buena Vista Avenue at 5:24 p.m. when his car collided with an eastbound Yellow Cab driven by Lawrence W. Buchholz, 24, of 10½ Locust Avenue. Mrs. McKenzie was a passenger in the cab.

Louis Braille, a frail young man who was born in France in 1809 and died at the age of 43, evolved his classic system of reading and writing for the blind when he was not yet 20. Though not fully accepted until after his death, the system has remained virtually unchanged and is used everywhere today.

Loch Lomond Directors Are Elected

Seven Loch Lomond residents were elected directors of the newly formed Loch Lomond Homeowners Assn. at its first general meeting Wednesday night at San Pedro School.

Directors are Angus Nicholson of 28 Dunfries Terrace, Herman Childress of 24 Dunfries Terrace, Robert Ilg of 7 Dunfries Terrace, Alan Kay of 19 Dorian Way, Frank Battat of 62 Lochinvar Road, Bayard Herrick of 15 Locksly Lane, and Paul Hartman of 4 Locksly Lane.

Battat reported that approximately 120 memberships have been received. The goals of the group will be to improve traffic safety in the Loch Lomond area, provide a platform on which members may voice their opinions, and improve the general property value in the area, he said.

The directors will elect officers in about two weeks and the second general meeting of the group will be held later this month, when plans for a newsletter will be discussed.

Channel Must Move For Field

Marin Junior College District trustees last night learned that if a new football field and track are to be placed where proposed on the master plan for the Kentfield campus, the Corte Madera channel will have to be relocated.

The college plans to relocate the channel eventually, but Joseph Cotteral, engineer for the architectural firm of Falk and Booth, said it would be possible to relocate the field quickly, without moving the channel, if no track were put around the field.

Then later, when the channel is realigned, the football field would have to be shifted slightly, to allow for installation of the track.

He said the relocation on the field was required to free space near the college buildings for parking. But Trustee Kent O. Seymour suggested parking could be allowed on the proposed football field location for now.

Cotteral suggested using dirt fill the district expects to purchase for a new corporation yard. He predicted that there would be settlement of the filled land, but said buildings can be constructed to take the strain.

Trustee Robert E. Rogers asked about increased flooding the filling might cause. Cotteral said he doubted that the equivalent of six acre feet of water removal would have much effect on the entire stream flood area.

The French naturalist Labillardiere, while exploring Australia in the 18th Century, used a telescope to discover whether the eucalypti were in bloom and a gun to shoot down the blossoms.

Cigarette Machine Won't Be Returned

Marin Junior College students will have to take their cigarettes from home.

Trustees of Marin Junior College District made that clear last night, over the protest of Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy. The final vote was 3-2, with Trustee Robert E. Rogers siding with Mrs. Deedy, while puffing a cigar.

Representatives of the executive council of the Associated Students of College of Marin handed over a petition signed by 1,400 students asking that the cigarette machine be put back in the student center.

College President Stephen E. Epler told the board the machine had been removed because it seemed inconsistent to carry on a health program and also encourage smoking, in light of the recent federal surgeon general's report on smoking.

Mrs. Deedy, who last spring was a leader in a program to set up clinics for smokers wishing to stop, said removing the machine was a useless gesture. She said students of college age who smoke are not going to be stopped by the inconvenience.

Noting that smoking by students is still to be allowed on campus, she said the best incentive would be an example set by the students' elders.

"Are you going to ban smoking by adults on campus?" she asked. "Believe you me, I'll bet you have an active academic senate here in five minutes."

Trustee Joseph D. Gargiula said he felt the inconvenience would be good for the students. "Ninety per cent of all smokers are sold a bill of goods when they're young," he said. "There is a billion-dollar campaign."

Trustee Kent O. Seymour said he felt the college administration should be backed up, and that the board should not buckle under to student pressure.

Student Body President David Lehman said one serious problem will be to serve the adult students at night, when nearby stores are all closed. And during the day, he said, food patrons would be attracted to places off campus, thus cutting into student association revenue.

Dystrophy Group To Tour Quentin

One hundred members and guests of the Marin County Chapter, Muscular Dystrophy Assn. of America, are expected to tour portions of San Quentin Prison, eat dinner, and watch an hour-long program of entertainment by inmate talent, tomorrow evening as guests of Warden L. W. Wilson.

The event will be a pre-kick-off function before the chapter launches its annual fund drive next month.

MANY THANKS

for paying your newspaperboy promptly

It's tough for a youngster to "come back some other time" for payment. As a young businessman, your I-J carrier boy is trying to do a job for you, rain or shine, on time. He really appreciates your paying him the first time he calls to collect. Keep it up, won't you?

Miss your paper? Please phone before 6:30 p.m.

Complaints Filed Over Runaway Girl

Complaints of contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old runaway from a San Francisco school for girls, were filed today by the Marin County district attorney's office against four Marin County men.

Warrants for their arrest were being prepared at noon today. They were identified by sheriff's officers as Leroy Patrick Grundhauser, 25, of 1533 Fourth Street, and his brother, Richard John Grundhauser, 29, of 8 Taylor Street, both of San Rafael, Isaac (Ikey) Sanchez, 23, of 38 Shell Road, Mill Valley, and William Switzer, 22, of 20 Canyon Road, San Anselmo.

Officers said the four allegedly took the girl to a Puerto Suello Hill motel, San Rafael, yesterday morning after finding her on a street corner in San Francisco. Sheriff's Inspector Guido Battaglia said a call was received from the motel, and officers arrived but the girl fled out a motel room window before they entered.

She returned later, he said, and was questioned and placed in Marin County Juvenile Hall, where she remained today.

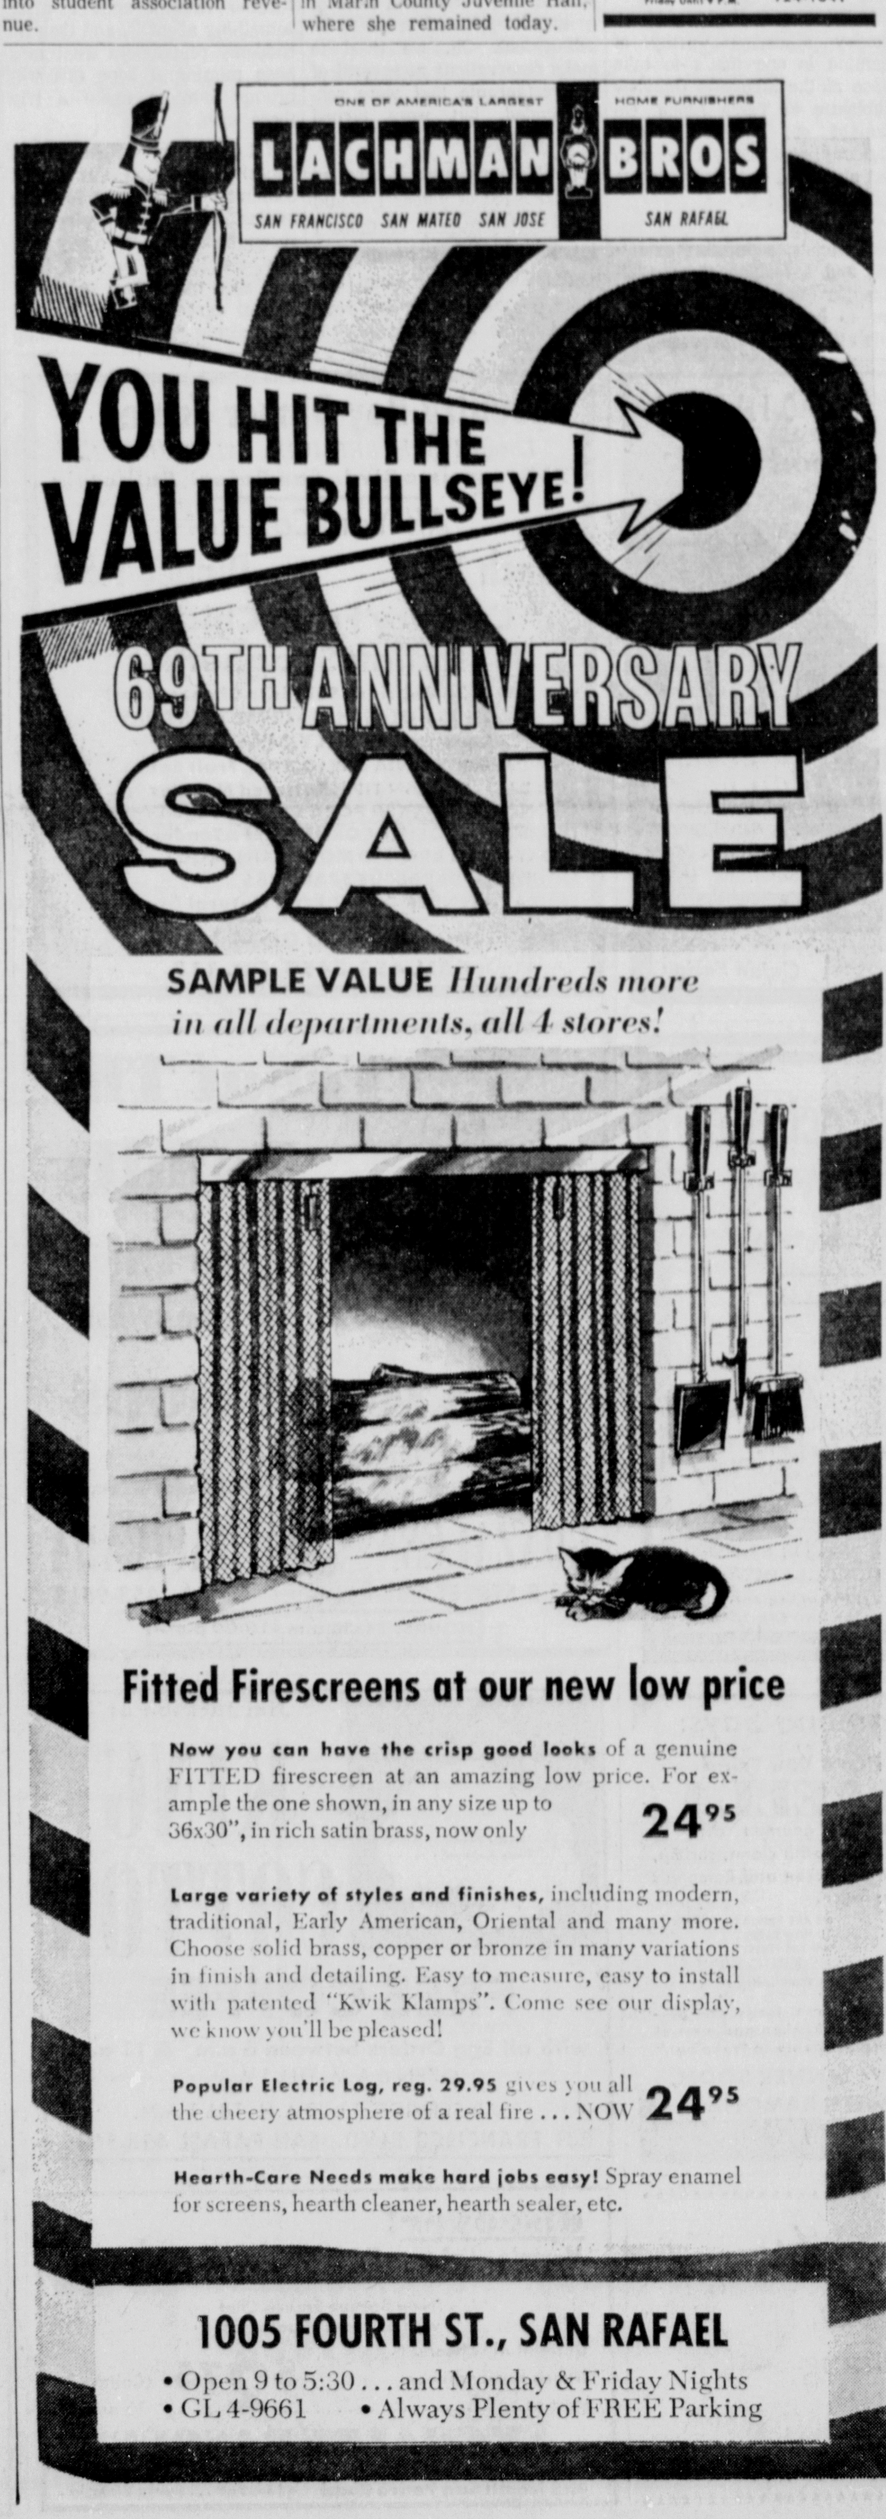
Teen Club Slates Car Wash Tomorrow

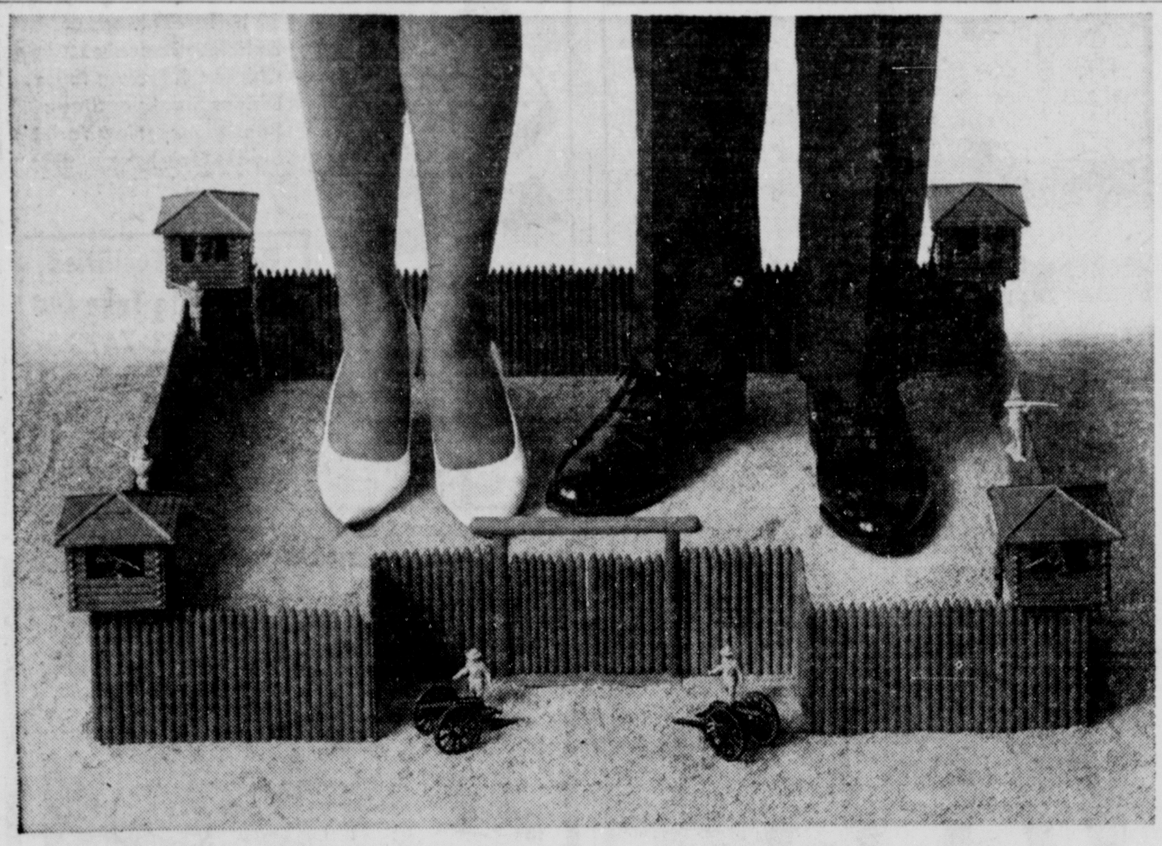
Strawberry Teen Club, sponsored by the Strawberry Recreation District, will have a car wash all day tomorrow to raise funds for club activities.

Club chairman John Ubhaus announced that the car wash will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Bill Bay Service Station, opposite Bel Air Shopping Center on Tiburon Boulevard.

Shows Improvement

Mrs. Wilda M. Merrill, 53, of San Francisco, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital, showing general improvement since she suffered fractures of ribs and left shoulder blade in a four-car accident in Greenbrae Sunday.





YOU'RE ON SAFE GROUND
When You Specify T. I. Title Protection

When you buy property, whether it's a home site or a high-rise apartment, you want to be sure that your investment is well protected. A stockade won't do it. But a title insurance policy from T.I. will. Should anyone make a claim against the title of your property, T.I. assures you the finest title protection available. You know you're on safe ground.

There are good reasons why most property buyers, real estate brokers, builders, developers and lending institutions choose T.I. over other title companies. For one thing, they know T.I. has America's largest and best-trained staff of title specialists—a team that knows California real estate from the ground up. They know that T.I. has the finest title facilities in the industry. And that T.I.'s experience dates all the way back to 1893.

They know, too, that T.I. (and only T.I.) has complete and up-to-date land records available in 40 California counties, plus fast service statewide with just one phone call.

Most important, they know T.I.'s matchless reputation for fast, dependable and impartial title service. So why don't you do as the real estate experts do? Specify T.I., the number one brand of title protection. It costs you no more—and you can be sure you're on safe ground.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

North Bay Food, Wine Society Will 'Discover' Gregory's

The North Bay Wine and Food Society will "discover" Gregory's Restaurant on Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, on Monday night, although I'm sure many of the members have already made its acquaintance individually.

But Monday when the restaurant is ordinarily closed, food connoisseurs and enophiles will test the skill of Gregory Seubert to make them give an approving nod as each course is submitted for trial. There will be no "ohs" and "ahs" if a particularly succulent tidbit is encountered or tantalizing aroma is inhaled. This is a group not much given to loquacity while eating. Little chatter takes place until the final sup and sip, and pipes or cigars are taken out.

Then come the comments, and the meal is rated course by course, glass by glass. I have no doubt that Gregory's will score well.

Within another three weeks Gregory should have a full liquor license—one that business opportunist Harry Abras found available at Matt and Ike's, San Rafael. It will take that much time before the transfer is approved.

Meanwhile, work will very likely begin next week on Gregory's bar and cocktail lounge adjoining the restaurant. A door will be cut through the wall for serving and convenience, but otherwise the restaurant itself will remain unchanged.

HOWARD GILLIGAN, award winning artist who belongs to the "realistic" school of painting, is the new exhibitor for October at Rubini's in Fairfax. Speaking of which, assistant chefs Herb Holzmann and Ed Townsley were recently caught doing a little "sunlighting" at a food fair in the White House department store in San Francisco, demonstrating their skill at shish kabob.

A BENEFIT PROGRAM on Sunday afternoon worthy of mention is one that's to take place at the Meadows Oakview clubhouse in Terra Linda. Go straight out Manuel Freitas Parkway, past Scotty's center to just about the end, and turn left and you'll find it.

This involves professional tennis matches, swimming exhibition and a fashion show. Club manager Shaun Wiltshire promises to have champagne cocktails available. All proceeds, including $1.50 admission, to go toward the United States Olympic Team. The affair is being sponsored by the United States Olympic Committee. The time is 2 p.m.

HERE'S ANOTHER benefit of local character. Next Tuesday night's 50-cent spaghetti feed of the Jacksons at the Office in Mill Valley, is for the Mill Valley Art Festival. Alternate Tuesdays there's a Mexican dinner here (not for 50 cents, however).

IT WASN'T UNFORESEEN that last week's column would arouse some controversy about the food spots of Carmel and Monterey, but I'll confess I hardly expected to find so many staunch supporters in Marin for that area's culinary accomplishments.

Indeed, one good lady in Kentfield accused me of gnawing on my foot rather than seeking out the dineries of quality—or words to that effect. But one thing she and the rest apparently overlooked was my statement that we were with a group of 40 people, and on short notice you just don't stand a chance of getting table space for even half that many at some of the spots you'd like to take in.

I guess this should have been pointed out, but at the time of writing it appeared to me to be self-evident. Oh, we tried to make reservations at several of the restaurants that were recommended, but were turned down.

As it stands now, I have an extensive list of places I should have visited instead of those I did. My mistake, it seems, was that I didn't make some ado about this beforehand and reap this harvest of suggestions in time for use before next vacation.

ODD THING, THOUGH, according to one fairly comprehensive travel guide, most of the spots now called to my attention are only given ratings equal with or lower than those I had mentioned. Mostly one or two stars. Only Gallatin's picked up four stars, and Highland Inn three. Not that I place all my faith in travel guides, having seen how many excellent locations in Marin are not even covered by distant publishers.

There's no substitute for the views of the people who have frequented a restaurant not just once, but many times. And in this respect I bow to the superior knowledge of my critics. I probably missed the best and saw the worst.

Still, I dunno. Talking to people in the trade who deal with restaurants at both locations, the odds remain in favor of the Bay Area. And in spite of what I still have to learn about the other I'm inclined to go along with their views. Just plain stubborn.

BUT BACK AGAIN to the places I do know about first hand. There's one party down in Tiburon, I'm told, who can't seem to rise to the urge to visit Rancho Nicasio until I write something about it, and then he suddenly remembers what he's been missing. I hope this will prompt him to make a trip there soon.

If I had never visited Rancho Nicasio for myself I'm sure I couldn't have held out for long against all the people who have recommended it. The way it is now, the Rancho or Nick Kobseff, soon turn into a subject of mutual agreement and we end up praising the food, chuckling over some of big Nick's remarks and their continued success.

Some would like to see Nicasio Valley stay the way it is. Others would like to have it remodeled to catch the fancy of tourists. Undoubtedly when a plentiful supply of water comes to the valley there will be some noticeable changes. (Nicasio does not share in the water supply from Nicasio Dam in spite of its proximity).

Until then you should accept it as it is—rural, western, quiet and restful most of the time, noisy and exhilerating when there's something to be celebrated. And with regard to the latter, I understand the Marin County Employees Assn. barbecue did pretty well a couple of weeks ago when 250 hungry people lined up to have their plates heaped high, according to observer Skeet Sylvester who covered this affair.

But the quiet times are nice for a midweek dinner at a candle-lit table, sandwiched between one enjoyable ride out there at dusk over the hills and through the valleys, and the later return trip when the moon shines through the trees. I tell you, this is one of the loveliest times of the year for the experience . . .

Cable Cars Are Now 'Landmarks'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With a nostalgic assist from Chief Justice Earl Warren, San Francisco's famed cable cars have become America's first portable landmarks.

Warren, making his first public appearance since publication of the Warren Commission Report, recalled yesterday how he first rode the cable cars as a University of California freshman.

The former California governor, featured speaker at a ceremony dedicating the cable cars as national landmarks, challenged the state's youth to "help keep those things in California which are beautiful and deserving of preservation."

Training Completed

Marine Privates John W. Groth, son of Mrs. Roberta F. Groth of 137 King Street, and Patrick M. Casey, son of Mrs. Frances M. Casey of 15 Monte Vista Avenue, both Larkspur, have completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

Two Films On Ballet Slated

Two films for ballet students and fans will be shown Oct. 17 and 18 at the School of Ballet Arts in Fairfax.

"Ballet Girl" describes Royal Danish Ballet School techniques in selecting and training pupils; "Tools of the Dance" depicts making and fitting of ballet shoes.

The showings are open to the public, with reservations due by Oct. 15 with Mrs. Louis Palleschi, 5 Corte Comoda, Greenbrae, or Mrs. Stephen Pinson, 64 Legend Road, San Anselmo.

Farmers End Holding Action On Livestock

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The National Farmers Organization which had been striving for 43 days to halt the marketing of livestock in a drive for higher prices ended its holding action last night.

But Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., the NFO president, said that it was only a recess in the controversial farm group's effort to gain bargaining power on prices with meat processors.

Old Pro Governor Brown Shows McCabe How To Stump District

'OLD PRO' HELPS CAMPAIGN — Gov. Edmund G. Brown speaks in behalf of congressional candidate George E. McCabe (center) over portable public address speaker outside Mill Valley City Hall. Holding the speaker is John G. Donhoff, McCabe's campaign manager. Brown stumped with McCabe through Marin yesterday.

By WAT TAKESHITA

Democratic Congressional candidate George E. McCabe of Santa Rosa, stumping through Marin in yesterday's sweltering heat, got a few tips on old-fashioned campaign techniques from an old pro—the governor himself.

McCabe, seeking the congressional post in the First District (six counties from Marin to Oregon border), met Gov. Edmund G. Brown at Vista Point north of Golden Gate Bridge. Together, they went stumping through Sausalito, Marin City, Mill Valley and San Rafael.

Everywhere they went, crowds were sparse, and residents seemed unaware that the governor was in the county.

At Mill Valley City Hall, about 100 greeted McCabe and the governor, and both made brief speeches. But elsewhere, they resorted to the old standby—stopping citizens on street corners, inside office buildings, and in markets to pump their hands, befriend children, and distribute literature.

The governor's approach was direct and simple: "I'm Governor Brown. I'm campaigning for our next congressman, George McCabe."

One man on the San Rafael courthouse steps shook the governor's hand with a look of disbelief on his face.

"You still don't believe me, do you?" chided Brown.

"Well, you musta lost some weight then," said the man looking him up and down.

"I've been campaigning hard," chuckled Brown.

In Mill Valley, as the McCabemobile left the city hall rally, an elderly couple and a child ran after the bus, waving. They had obviously missed the rally and wanted a glimpse of the governor.

Brown ordered the bus stopped, and he and McCabe got out to chat with the three late-comers.

Inside the Marin City Market, Brown and McCabe pumped a dozen hands, then went outside and caught a couple more.

The small crowds failed to dampen the governor's spirits.

"There are supposed to be eight million voters in this state," he chirped. "We've got a long ways to go." And off they went to the next stop.

McCabe and the old pro then attended big rallies in Petaluma and Santa Rosa before returning for a dinner for Vera Schultz last night in San Rafael.

Brown Calls For Election Of Mrs. Schultz As Senator

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, calling for "desegregation" of the all-male State Senate, asked Marin voters last night to elect Vera Schultz as the first woman senator in the history of California.

He spoke at a testimonial dinner for Mrs. Schultz before a crowd of about 400 at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael.

The governor criticized the "incumbent Republican senator" for absenteeism and for "devoting his time to attacks on the executive branch of government for unadulterated partisan purposes."

Brown commended Mrs. Schultz for her fight for the Civic Center, Marin City redevelopment, Richardson Bay master plan, county administrator form of government, parks and recreation and flood control districts.

He also endorsed George McCabe for Congress, James Pockrus for Assembly, and Byron W. Leydecker, "my great appointee to the Board of Supervisors."

He predicted a Democratic sweep this year from President Lyndon B. Johnson and Sen. Pierre Salinger on down.

Governor Brown then pleaded for passage of park and school bonds, defeat of the lottery proposition, and asked voters to "give Proposition 14 the worst licking you've given in all your life."

Mrs. Schultz accused the incumbent senator, John F. McCarthy, of trying to block the creation of Point Reyes National Seashore and introducing legislation to have state tidelands turned over to private owners for filling and developing.

She promised to work "to preserve the beautiful and irreplaceable natural resources that we have in this gem of a county."

The speakers were in jovial mood last night.

The governor recalled he had a good slogan when he first ran for office in 1946, but his wife would not allow it. The slogan: "Women of California, wake up with Pat Brown!"

Mrs. Schultz, quoting John F. Kennedy, told the guests, who had paid $25 per plate:

"I am touched, but not as deeply as you have been."

Peter Allen Smith, chairman of the Marin Democratic Central Committee, was master of ceremonies.

Other speakers included Roger Kent, state chairman; Elizabeth Smith Gatov, national committeewoman and former U. S. treasurer, and Robert Politzer, president of the Council of Democratic Clubs.

The Straw Hatters of the Festival Theater provided entertainment.

Marinite Going To Mississippi

Robert Scoville of Corte Madera, a recent graduate of College of Marin, will leave tomorrow to join the Mississippi voter registration drive.

A political science major, Scoville had plannned to enter San Francisco State College this fall, but has been granted a leave until January. He has been a member of the student-Non-Violent Coordinating Committee on the junior college campus.

Scoville lives at 28 Tamal Vista Avenue, Corte Madera. He said he felt the trip would be "a good experience for me."

Black Point Club Carnival Tomorrow

The second carnival of the Black Point Improvement Club to raise money for its building fund will be held from 2 p.m. to midnight tomorrow at the IDESI Hall, Sweetzer and Machin avenues, Novato.

There will be games for children and adults, prizes, food and soft drink booths, and fun for all, according to W. Riley Wingate, chairman.

Church Group Hears Race Justice Appeal

Dedicated to the principle of "Christian social justice in 1964," more than 400 attended St. Raphael's second parish conference last night in a meeting that held an attentive audience until after 11 p.m.

"No problem," said Rev. Edward Dingberg, "has brought about such a unanimity of thinking and statement on the part of Protestant churches, on the part of Catholic leadership and the members of the Judaic faith as has this matter — an effort on the part of men of good will to implement the law of charity and the principle of justice."

Father Dingberg is a member of the Archdiocesan Commission on Interracial Justice, chaplain of the Catholic Interracial Council, and pastor of St. Isabella's Church in Terra Linda.

The panel of speakers also included Everett Brandon, Negro stockbroker, founder and director of PACT (Plan for Action for Challenging Times), and John Delury, executive secretary of the Archdiocesan Commission on Social Justice.

Spurning "abstractionism," Brandon gave a factual account of his experience as an idealistic 14-year-old boy coming from Panama to the United States, and his awakening to Negro life in America and the influence of the ghetto on the moral code of Negro youth and the development of bitterness, hostility and violence.

Addressing himself specifically to those "who are genuinely misinformed," Delury explained that Proposition 14 is a constitutional amendment, not a referendum. He said it would in effect grant a license for housing discrimination and prevent the arms of government doing anything about it in the future. "This," said Delury, "is without parallel anywhere in the United States, even in the sovereign State of Mississippi."

Fifty table leaders led discussion during a coffee hour. Afterwards, speakers commented on questions submitted.

Redwood Freshman Class Elects Kreps

David Kreps was elected president of the freshman class of Redwood High School by one vote in an election at the school yesterday.

He received 86 votes to 85 for Nip Grey and 28 for Lee McEachern. Clint Davis, with 74 votes, won the vice presidency, with 56 votes going to Bob Roth, 41 to Betty Block and 27 to Steve Dryer. Cindy French, unopposed, received 187 votes for secrtary, and Judy Mayer, also unopposed, got 183 for treasurer.

Location Of Runway Approved

Change in location of the proposed 3,300-foot long runway at the Marin County Airport six miles north of Hamilton Air Force Base has been approved by the airspace utilization branch of the Federal Aviation Agency, it was announced today.

Harry A. Suffron of the airspace utilization branch office in Los Angeles told the Independent-Journal that no objection to the relocation of the runway had been received.

Construction of the 50-foot kide runway has been proposed by Marin County to begin in October, 1965.

Suffron said that no word has been received from the airports division of the Federal Aviation Agency in Washington, D.C., whether the county application for federal aid for acquisition of land and construction of the runway has been approved.

Fall Down Stairs Injures Man's Chest

Edward John Meyer, 52, of 983 Fourth Street, suffered chest injuries when he fell down several stairs at that address at 11:45 a.m. yesterday, San Rafael police reported.

Meyer was taken to San Rafael General Hospital where he was reported in good condition today.

Proposition 14 Attacked, Defended In Church Talk

Proposition 14 was hailed as a boon to individual freedom and cited as a threat to human rights last night at Terra Linda High School.

These contradictory views were aired during a two-hour forum on the proposed constitutional amendment that would nullify California fair housing laws.

Four speakers, two pro and two con, spoke before about 150 persons at the forum sponsored by nine churches from the Terra Linda-Lucas Valley-Santa Venetia area.

Cole Jackman, San Anselmo realty broker, opened the session with a strong attack on the proposition, calling it "an anti-civil rights proposition."

Passage of the proposition would "make discrimination the public law of California and promote bigotry," Jackman said. "If you really must discriminate, then support the proposition."

Jackman defended the Rumford Fair Housing Act, which has been attacked by proponents of Proposition 14.

Roy West, San Francisco realty broker, said that a "yes" vote for the proposition would be "a vote for the basic right of freedom of choice, and then you can sell or rent to whoever you please."

West described the Rumford Ast as "a bad bill" that was pressured through the state legislature at the last minute.

Passage of the proposition would put the subject in the hands of the people, and not in the hands of the legislature, he said.

Rabbi Alvin Fine of San Francisco, second speaker against the proposition, described it as "a measure to perpetuate prejudice."

He described the proposition "as essentially a moral question" even though it has economic, political and judicial aspects."

George deUrioste of Mill Valley, a realty broker in San Francisco, backing the proposition, spoke against the usurping of individual rights.

Under the Rumford Act, the state can for the first time punish a citizen, not for an act, but for what he thought while he committed the act, deUrioste contended.

Marin Municipal Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson served as moderator and gave a short talk on the background of housing legislation. Joseph Goff of Terra Linda was chairman of the session.

Eight churches joined in sponsoring the forum: Christ Presbyterian, St. Isabella's Catholic, Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, Episcopal Church of the Nativity, Aldersgate Methodist, Congregation Rodef Sholom (Jewish), Marin Unitarian-Universalist, and Lucas Valley Community Church.

San Rafael Girl Injured In Crash

Nancy Valador of San Rafael was treated for a slight neck injury at Marin General Hospital yesterday after a three-car rear-end collision on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Corte Madera, Greenbrae.

Miss Valador, 18, of 24 Cushing Avenue, San Rafael, was a passenger in a car driven by Donald L. Warmby. 19, of 101 Raposa Vista, Novato, the front car of the three.

The California Highway Patrol reported Warmby was stopped in a line of traffic, with a car driven by Timothy L. Dolan, 17, of 16 Elena Circle, San Rafael, stopped behind him, when Dolan's auto was struck by one driven by Clark E. Cheff Jr., 17, of San Quentin Village.

Quentin Holds 'Trade Fair'

More than 400 persons representing management and labor in the San Francisco Bay Area attended the first "trade fair" at San Quentin Prison last night.

The visitors saw 22 displays designed and manned by inmates describing the technical and vocational training programs at the prison, including horticulture, machinery, sheet metal, nursing, and dental technology.

Speakers at the fair were Dr. Don Jose F. Aubertine, instructor at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in San Francisco who initiated the prison's dental laboratory training program 18 years ago, and Walter Dunbar, director of the State Department of Corrections.

Marin Student Learns Much About How Others Live In Iran

"It was an experience I will always remember," said Neena Suntzeff of Corte Madera, who spent the summer in Iran as an American Field Service exchange student.

Miss Suntzeff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Suntzeff of 64 Presidio Avenue, was one of 11 American students who spent three months in Iran under AFS auspices.

She traveled by plane to New York, by ship to Rotterdam, by bus to Amsterdam, then by plane again to Athens, then Istanbul, and finally Tehran, capital of Iran.

Miss Sutzeff stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Zangenehpour and their daughter, Fereshteh, 17, and their sons, Khashyar, 15, and Korosh, 9.

Zangenehpour, her Iranian "father," has an office job with the American Presbyterian Mission.

"It was really surprising to see the great economic and social contrast in Iran. You are either very wealthy or in the lowest form of poverty," reported Miss Suntzeff.

"Tehran is a city of contrasts.

NEENA SUNTZEFF
Wears chadar, Iranian costume

Although you see some new buildings, such as supermarkets, a department store, and government buildings, the old customary open-air market is the most widely used."

Iran is sometimes called the "Land of Roses and Nightingales" because the Iranians are such avid flower growers. Besides flowers, the other main products are rice, sheep, goats, cattle, oil, and "the most delicious fruit I've ever eaten."

"The food eaten by the Zangenehpours directly reflects the agricultural products," she said. "Rice is consumed in great quantities, while on the other hand potatoes are not so readily found. Meat is mostly stewed and for religious reasons, pork is not eaten. Dessert usually consists of fruit.

"The weather in Iran is quite warm, with temperatures ranging from 100 to 110 degrees. Because the heat of the day is between noon and 6 p.m., the working day is broken down into two periods, from 7 a.m. until noon and from 6 to 10 p.m. In between these periods is a leisurely dinner, followed by a long nap.

"The evenings are spent watching television, reading, or attending movies. There is no theater in Tehran, but sports events are very popular."

Miss Suntzeff took a two-week bus trip to southern Iran, visiting the towns of Isfahn and Shiraz.

"These cities are of importance because of their historical background," she related. "Ruins of Iranian history are evident throughout the towns. Isfahn and Shiraz were also much more primitive than Tehran. No signs of western influence were present.

"Although the customs, the leisurely way of life, and the general pattern of life are different," said Miss Suntzeff, "I found that the Iranian family is much like the American: working, playing and living as people do the world over."

Comedian Allan Sherman Set For Anti-Prop. 14 Benefit

Comedian Allan Sherman will perform in a benefit performance sponsored by the Conference on Religion and Race Oct. 11 at 3 p.m. at San Rafael High School.

Appearing with him will be Lou Gottleib, one of the original Limeliters. Money raised will be used by Californians Against Proposition 14.

ALLAN SHERMAN
To appear in benefit

The sponsoring group is headed by Rev. Wesley C. Baker, Bernard T. Engel and Rev. Daniel McAlister, all of San Rafael. Tickets may be obtained through Mrs. Leonard Sperry of Tiburon.

Sherman is now appearing at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

Bicycle Rodeo Winners Told

Winners in a bicycle rodeo sponsored by the Glenwood Homeowners Assn. and Glenwood School last Saturday were announced yesterday afternoon by B. R. Rockwell, association president.

Michael Torre and Gerry Brass won first places in the elementary school age group, with Put Meoriam and Donna Gardener ranking second.

First-place winners in the junior high and high school age groups were Christine Creigh and Don Bachman.

There were 66 participants who took the six tests on bicycle safety and maintenance given by Sgt. Louis E. Foster Jr. of the San Rafael Police Department, Rockwell reported.

U.S. Again Acting To Save Redwoods

By DEREK SCHOEN

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After a lapse of 56 years, the federal government again is showing interest in preserving a steadily dwindling breed of trees dating back to the dinosaurs.

In 1908, President Theodore Roosevelt established Muir Woods National Monument, putting the federal government solidly behind preservation of California's mammoth coastal redwood trees.

Since that act—and despite state and private acquisition of redwood stands for parks—the number of acres of redwoods has been reduced from two million to 750,000.

Of only 300,000 acres of virgin redwoods still in existence, a scant 50,000 acres remain safe in state parks from the lumberman's chain saw.

Now, conceding that further delay could spell the end of the once-great redwood forests, the government is again considering acquisition of virgin stands.

In a recently released report, the National Park Service has recommended federal purchase of up to 53,000 acres of additional redwood forest for national parks.

The report, prepared at the direction of President Lyndon B. Johnson, advances a twin thesis:

1. The redwoods represent a priceless national asset.

2. Preservation of the age-old trees—far from harming Northern California's economy—would prove an economic boon.

Here's how the park service summarizes the first point:

"For many years, public interest has been evidenced by visitation from all over the nation and the world, and by the willingness of many to contribute substantial sums for the purchase and preservation of dedicated groves.

"This stems from many things —their size, of course, as the tallest living trees . . . their age and stubborn indestructible qualities in the face of fire, disease and insects, the fact they grow nowhere else on earth.

"More important, however, is their very special inspirational qualities which so impress the visitor."

Since 1902, private citizens have poured 10 million dollars into efforts to preserve the redwoods. Most of this has been channeled through the San Francisco-based Save-the-Redwoods League, a group founded in 1918 which carries on a nationwide fund-raising and informational program.

Californians have spent another nine million dollars — in taxes — toward creation of the state's 28 exisiting redwood parks.

Strongest opposition to expansion of redwood parks has come from the logging concerns and their employees, who see conversion of privately owned forests into parks as a threat to Northern California's economy.

Their concern is understandable. In the three counties which the report earmarks for park expansion — Humboldt, Del Norte and Mendocino — the lumber industry accounts for from 25 to 38 per cent of total employment.

Significantly, within days after the report's appearance, the powerful Redwood Empire Assn. —representing the major lumber companies and other Northern California commercial interests—criticized the plan as economically disastrous.

The park service disagrees.

Its report estimates that within five years after creation of expanded parks, some one million visitors could be expected to visit the three counties annually. Within 15 years, the number would increase to two million tourists.

Within five years, tourists would be spending 3.6 million dollars annually on food, lodging, gasoline and souvenirs. The expanded parks would generate 11.2 million dollars worth of tourist business within 15 years, predicts the report.

Development of the parks is expected to cost 7.5 million dollars in capital improvements alone, with an estimated $450,000 to local labor and $840,000 to local wholesalers. It would cost an estimated $516,000 to $774,000 annually to operate the parks.

The report also deals with a problem of grave concern to the timber has been cut—has no local government—the removal from the tax rolls of valuable timber land.

Public ownership of the forests would cut into the assessed valuation of the property, notes the report. But the land—once long-range future as tax-producing acreage anyway, says the park service.

Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall is scheduled to present an expanded version of the report to President Johnson early next year.

Study Asked Of Connection Of Highway To Miracle Mile

Study of a highway connection from Highway 17 to western Marin County along the Miracle Mile and westward through San Anselmo and Fairfax has been urged by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce board of directors, Jack Alvarado, manager, said yesterday.

Nine of the 12 directors responding to a poll taken Wednesday favored the Miracle Mile route, he reported. Two of the 14 directors were absent when the poll was taken, two abstained from voting, and one favored the Lucas Valley route.

Alvarado said the chamber's streets, highway and parking committee will meet with its counterpart of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce later this month to draft a resolution which will be voted on by directors before being presented to city councils for consideration.

Demos To Meet

The Novato Democratic Juniors will hold their first public meeting at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Democratic headquarters at 1620 Grant Avenue, according to Richard Pechner, president.

118 YEARS' EXPERIENCE — Tomorrow's 65th annual Sunny Hills Grape Festival will be manned by scores of volunteer workers who have literally decades of experience at the benefit celebration. Hard at work preparing the Sunny Hills board of directors' booth are (from left) Samuel S. Knoles, "junior" of this group with only 15 years on the job; staff bookkeeper Elizabeth M. Goshen, 27 years; Floyd R. Middagh, 33 years, and Edwin F. Gardner, 43 years.

65th Annual Sunny Hills Fete Tomorrow

The 65th annual Sunny Hills Grape Festival will open at 10 a.m. tomorrow on the Sunny Hills grounds in San Anselmo with ceremonies led by Mrs. Robert E. Kettenbach, president of the home for adolescent children.

The members of 38 Sunny Hills guilds, the Junior Auxiliary and various other community organizations will have 78 booths and entertainments sections ready for the day-long event. The festival closes at 6 p.me.

The traditional amateur talent show will be on stage at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., with finals at 2 p.m. Bill Thompson of Radio KTIM will be master of ceremonies.

The festival is one of the Bay Area's oldest celebrations, and its age was recalled this week by:

Edwin F. Gardner, Woodacre, who was on hand as a boy of 17 to help haul heavy lugs of grapes to the grape booth.

Mrs. Edwin A. Wells of San Rafael, honorary vice president of the board of directors, who traced her Grape Festival ties back to 1935.

A program from the 1931 Grape Festival that reported the San Francisco Theological Seminary, Mill Valley Outdoor Club, Katharine Branson School, Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts, and First National Bank (now Crocker-Citizens) played roles in the celebration.

Floyd R. Middagh retired last year after nearly 25 years as chief deputy in the civil division of the Marin County Sheriff's office—but who will be on duty tomorrow for his 33rd year as a guard.

The festival was held at the Kent estate in Kentfield from 1903 through 1946, moved for two years to the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross, then settled where it now is.

Sausalito Man Hit And Robbed

A 48-year-old Sausalito man was knocked unconscious and robbed of $20 and his car at his home last night by a man named Jack whom he had invited home for drinks.

Geoffrey Pretyman told police he met the man, who is about 30, on a Sausalito street. He invited him to his home at 65 Cloud View Road shortly before 11:50 p.m.

Before a drink could be mixed, Pretyman reported, Jack slugged Pretyman in the mouth with his fist, knocking him unconscious.

On regaining consciousness, Pretyman said, he found his wallet laying beside him on the floor with approximately $20 in cash missing. His car keys were also gone, as was his 1962 Plymouth Valiant.

Pretyman was not hospitalized, said police. An all-points bulletin was issued for the strong-arm robber.

Recreation Group Backing Landscape Firm For Park

San Rafael city councilmen will be asked Monday night to approve hiring a San Francisco landscape architect firm to prepare a long-range master plan and specific drawings for a $50,000 first stage development of the proposed Freitas Park behind Terra Linda High School.

Members of the city park and recreation commission meeting Wednesday night, recommended hiring the firm of Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck for the job, with a tentative fee of $7,500.

Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota said legal technicalities of accepting the 60-acre parcel from the Freitas family still are being worked out by City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen, but are being pushed to permit groundbreaking next spring.

Members of the Terra Linda Homeowners Assn. attended the recreation meeting to urge speedy action on the park program.

Progress is less definite on the four-acre Nunes park site, also in Terra Linda. Commissioner Irwin Taranto, Rodota and City Manager Andersen were delegated to meet with the Nunes family's attorney, John G. Buresh, to negotiate terms for its acquisition.

The Park And Recreation Commission Also:

1. Approved use of the recreation center for the county's future Saturday programs for handicapped persons, at no added cost to the city.
2. Extended for another year the agreement under which the county pays half the lease and utility costs of the recreation center.
3. Voted permission for Teen Club delegates and their adult adviser, Mrs. Nan Person, to attend the California Youth Conference at Asilomar, today Sunday.
4. Accepted donation of $500 from the disbanding of the athletic association to improve the picnic area at Albert Field in memory of the late Charles Pinza, longtime Albert Field custodian.

AID FOR STINSON ATHENEUM

Two members of the Greek Tragedy Theater of Arts, Aspasia Papathanassio in the title role of Sophocles' "Electra" and Antonios Xenakis as Agristhos, will perform in classic Greek on the Curran Theater, San Francisco, stage Monday. On Thursday, the touring group will perform Euripedes' "Medea." Both performances will bolster the funds for the Atheneum, proposed center for all the arts, at Stinson Beach.

First Project Is Completed By Tiburon

Newly incorporated Tiburon has completed its first construction project, a pedestrian walkway along Tiburon Boulevard at Trestle Glen Boulevard.

City Mgr. Lawrence D Rose noted that the work was done after citizens requested it to safeguard walking commuters and school children.

The work was done by county workers, paid by the city through its contract with the county public works department.

Other projects which the city will order done include reconstruction of curbing and installation of a catch basin on Reed Ranch Road north of Cayford Drive to alleviate a drainage problem; smoothing out of a rough road surface on Trestle Glen Boulevard east of Tiburon Boulevard; construction of a road shoulder on the downhill side of Centro West in the 1800 block.

Lawmen Working On Youth Group

Decision was made yesterday by five Marin law enforcement officials to form a county-wide police athletic league, patterned after that in San Francisco.

By-laws and a constitution will be drawn up with assistance of Sgt. Charles Ellis, president of San Francisco's league, and Thomas A. Toomey, president of the PAL Boosters, San Francisco.

Acting chairman Herbert Smith of Sausalito police said the Marin officers will enlist assistance of civic and religious groups. Some civic organizations have expressed interest in the proposed league, said Smith.

Those attending yesterday's meeting at Zack's by-the-Bay were Lt. Norman Snellgrove, training officer at San Quentin Prison; Drew Hall, county juvenile probation officer; Lt. William H. Porter, California Highway Patrol; Harvey E. Teague, county juvenile officer, and Smith.

Dog Is Sought In Rabies Case

A black and tan collie-type dog whose bite may cause a 17-year-old Greenbrae youth to undergo painful anti-rabies treatment was still missing, Marin County health authorities reported today.

Vern Gulbrandsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Relph V. Gulbrandsen of 81 Via Navarro, said today his doctor will start the treatments on Monday if the dog is not located and found to have been vaccinated against rabies recently.

The dog bit Gulbrandsen on the leg as he ran around the track at Redwood High School last Friday.

"Mariposa" is a Spanish word meaning "butterfly."

Mill Valley's General Plan Funds Gaining

The City of Mill Valley has received approval from the State Planning Advisory Committee of its "701" program and the request for federal approval will now go to the Housing and Home Finance Agency in Washington, D.C., John D. Erickson, city planning consultant, said today.

Funds, if approved, will be used to prepare and revise a city general plan, produce a precise plan of the downtown area, a review and revision of the zoning and subdivision ordinances. Total funds will be about $27,000, with the city contributing about $9,000 of the total in cash and services and the work to be done by Erickson.

The figure 701 refers to section 701 of the Housing Act of 1954, under which the grant is authorized.

State Will Buy 2,000 New Cars

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State of California will buy about 2,000 new cars during the 1965 model year, the Department of General Services announced.

Out of the total, about 600 will be one-half and three-quarter ton pickup trucks and the balance will be passenger cars.

The largest single type of vehicle is known as "Group B", or four-door sedans. In September bids were solicited for 661 "Group B" sedans, with another 330 units to be put to bid in June of next year.

Trial Is Scheduled In Assault, Battery

Court trial for Joseph Columbus Hildreth, 34-year-old San Rafael man charged with assault and battery on a Marinwood man Sept. 21, was scheduled yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Hildreth, of 1012 Los Gamos Road, allegedly pulled Joseph J. Carusone of 290 Cobblestone Drive from the latter's car, knocked him down and kicked him. Carusone told officers Hildreth's car had struck his earlier as he started to pull off a Redwood Highway frontage road.

Effect Of G.M. Strike Hits Steel Industry

DETROIT (UPI) — The effects of the nationwide strike against General Motors Corp. spread to the steel industry today with announcement that G.M.'s Fisher Body Division has notified all steel firms to stop shipments.

A G.M. spokesman said the stop order was for the next two weeks and it indicated the Fisher Body plants had adequate inventory to be used if production resumes.

The United Auto Workers Union struck G. M. last Friday.

There are 28 Fisher Body plants located around the nation in areas where G. M. assembles Chevrolets, Pontiacs, Oldsmobiles, Cadillacs and Buicks.

The auto industry uses about 20 per cent of the nation's steel output and G. M. has over half of the auto market.

It was the first spread of the effectst of the strike to another basic industry. The effects were expected to spread to the rubber and glass and other basic industries shortly.

Meanwhile, the UAW and G.M. concentrated bargaining efforts on wrapping up nearly 17,000 local demands in an effort to end the eight-day-old strike by more than 260,000 workers.

G. M. labor relations director Earl Bramblett said G. M. and the union would continue to speed up local settlements and said the national contract agreement will not be at the settlement stage until more locals resolve their disputes.

Death Is Ruled Heart Attack

SANTA BARBARA (AP)—A coed whose body was found by her roommate in the women's dormitory at the University of California at Santa Barbara died of a heart attack, the coroner says.

Dr. Theodore W. Richey, in a pathological report to the county coroner yesterday, said that despite 17-year-old Diane Lea Kirk's record of good health, her death last Sept. 13 was the result of a heart attack.

The verdict ruled out the possibility of foul play in the mystery death of Miss Kirk, who was entering the university as a freshman.

Tiburon Takes Over Zone Work

The City of Tiburon has begun to take over zoning administration and building inspection work from the county.

Leslie Gross, newly hired administrator of the newly designated department of land and improvements, began work this week in the city office at 1610 Tiburon Boulevard.

He and his newly hired assistant, Mrs. Doris Levine of Tiburon, will handle building and zoning questions through the city office as the first step in transfer of work from the county, which now advises the city under contract. Tiburon was incorporated June 23.

$165,000 In Heroin Is Seized In Raid

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Narcotics agents have seized $165,000 worth of heroin and arrested 21 persons during a raid on a Mission District house in San Francisco.

Seventeen men and four women were charged in federal warrants with the sale of heroin after a raid yestrday on the home of Jose Verdugo.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

State Booklet Is No More Than Come-On Gimmick

Southern Californians, particularly an Assemblyman from Long Beach, screamed when he got his first glimpse of "California Profit Opportunities," an 86-page prestige publication of the state Economic Development Agency.

Assemblyman Joseph M. Kennick (D-Long Beach) charged that the book discriminates against Long Beach and ignores Southern California.

We've been poring through the pages looking for some specific mention of Marin County, but can't find any except on a routine state map with every county listed. The book just doesn't go into that much detail.

Among Kennick's beefs are these:

Long Beach airport is not shown on a map, whereas those in Bakersfield, Fresno and San Jose are listed. Long Beach does not appear on the freeway map, while San Luis Obispo, Modesto and Ukiah do.

Kennick says Southern California is slighted all around. Three trade associations are listed to provide the reader with more information, all with San Francisco Bay Area addresses. Of seven banks listed, six have San Francisco addresses; and of four governmental agencies listed, three have San Francisco addresses. And the book fails to mention important Southern California utilities.

It's true Long Beach may have received a raw deal in the publication, and the mapmakers could have included Long Beach on more of the maps. But it seems to us that the book does not go into enough detail for any one community to have any big kick coming.

The book is filled with beautiful colored photographs of scenic spots in California, but none of the pictures are identified as to location.

The purpose of the $13,000 propaganda effort seems to be to give the out-of-stater a sketchy but dazzling sweep of the state and get him to make further inquiries.

To a person entirely unfamiliar with California, it might serve as a "come-on" gimmick. But aside from that, we see no real value because those who want more local details can get information from chambers of commerce and other agencies.

For businesses seriously interested in locating in California, a less dazzling publication with more detail on sites, costs, and taxes would make more sense.

Meanwhile, Lewis M. Holland, the commissioner of the Economic Development Agency, does admit that there were some errors and omissions in the first printing of "California Profit Opportunities" that will be corrected in the second printing.

For example, a number of railroads were mentioned, but the Union Pacific was not. Holland takes full responsibility for that oversight.

But as a broad and general "propaganda piece" for the state as a whole, we certainly wouldn't condemn the publication. At least it's eye-catching, and it can't do the state any harm, although cities like Long Beach, which feels it's been slighted, may suffer in injured pride.

Olympic Day Sunday In Marin

This Sunday afternoon in Terra Linda, you'll be able to watch the nation's top synchronized swimmers in action, and enjoy a fashion show and professional tennis matches, all in one sitting.

It will be "Olympic Day" at The Meadows at Terra Linda, 919 Lea Drive, a benefit for the U.S. Olympic Fund. All proceeds will go directly to the U.S. Olympic Fund to back up America's athletes, who are up against teams from the world over, many of them government supported.

The Sunday program, starting at 2 p.m., will include tennis exhibitions by pros, a fashion show by Modern Eve and Mannequin League of Marin, and swimming by Marin's Ann Curtis Synchronized Swim Team and the Marionettes from San Francisco. The Curtis Team and Marionettes placed first and second nationally this year.

This is your chance to enjoy top-flight entertainment and at the same time contribute to America's prestige in the world's finest amateur sports competition.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Business Headline Amuses In Light Of Electioneering Pace

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

With opposing candidates fuming and frothing at each other, and a lot of hot air being tossed around, it was amusing to note the business page of a well-known publication with this banner headline:

"Record Year For Natural Gas!"

The political pot is really beginning to boil. One day you see an Ernest Kettenhofen bumper strip on opponent William D. Fusselman's car.

NEXT DAY you hear rumors that the battle of the campaign signs (knocking over the opponent's posters) is already started. Some of these, of course, could be pure acts of vandalism, not politically motivated.

The congressional fight is only beginning. Republican incumbent Don H. Clausen is now touring the district with a mobile house car (complete with radio-phone, sleeping and eating quarters) to match the "McCabe-Mobile" of his opponent — Democrat George E. McCabe.

POUNDING THE pavement and doorbell ringing will no doubt be standard procedure from now on.

During last week's heat spell, Vera Schultz, who is up against the veteran Sen. John F. McCarthy, was ringing doorbells in Corte Madera. The long walk and the hot sun were obviously wearing her down.

A local postman, who happened to be taking the same route at the same time, and who knows a thing or two about walking, gave her a few tips.

Mrs. Schultz passes along the mailman's prescription for the benefit of all precinct workers: Wash the feet with baking soda, pat with vinegar, and then rub with castor oil.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Don't Belittle Cigarette Hazard

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your recent editorial on cigarette smoking echoes the giddy thinking which many smokers are emitting these days—that smoking is such a light-hearted activity which harms no one but the smoker, and possibly not even him, why trouble about it. The cigarette industry and the tobacco politicians have nearly won the day in hushing the genuine furor which the Surgeon General's report deservedly stimulated.

The evidence in that report gathered by a blue-ribbon committee was so indisputable that a call for action was clearly given. Ten months later every move has been blocked on the national level by the vested interests. They have tried to transmute its scientific validity into bothersome rumor and to suggest that its recommendations belong to zealous busybodies.

Even though the tobacco industry has adopted a code to curb its own past advertising record of flagrant excesses, it is still free to tout the satisfactions of smoking without the responsibility of disclosing its serious risks to life. Every smoking habitue as well as the 4,500 American youngsters who become smokers each day wish that the cancer, heart, tuberculosis and health people would stop annoying them with their stiletto reminders.

Unless we should decide that public health is for the birds, that we can look the other way when our own children are thinking about smoking; unless we decide to stop caring about the causation of disease and disability—and their prevention — we have no other choice than to confront the problem however and whenever we can. In California, at least, the Governor's Committee on Smoking and Health is doing its best to establish and effect an actual working program. It behooves us to offer our cooperation if only for the sake of our children.

Birch Society 'Does Not Dictate'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wish to make a slight correction in Saturday's editorial about "Birchers Stirring In Marin."

The John Birch Society does not dictate to its members. It makes suggestions. The membership is expected not to follow suggestions which are contrary to one's belief.

Members of the Society are free Americans, like all others, except American Communists!

Victory Or Defeat, No Co-Existence

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Sam Hanzel, M.D., in his letter of Sept. 25, made two serious mistakes.

A "no win" policy is not a mature recognition of the facts of life because they (or we) can conquer the world. If the United States ever falls to Communism, the whole world will soon follow. The United States is falling to Communism. Communists are becoming entrenched in high government positions and departments, such as the State Department and the Supreme Court (there is more than one Alger Hiss). The day is not far away (unless we, the citizens, take fact and strong action to fight internal Communism—it is not too late) when it will be un-American to be anti-Communistic. When that day comes we will have fallen. Communism would die of its own internal faults if we would stop feeding them and stop giving them aid, such as wheat, chemical plants, and nuclear reactors.

We need a man in the White House who realizes that co-existence is a necessity for a victory of Communism and that there will either be a "victory over world Communism" or a "victory by world Communism." Coexistence with Communism is like going to bed with a rattlesnake — eventually you will be fatally bitten.

Absolute Discretion May Hurt Realtor

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wonder if it has occurred to the Realtors who are supporting Proposition 14 that the "absolute discretion" clause means that they may have trouble collecting their 6 per cent commissions? If the seller can, without explanation, refuse to sell to an otherwise satisfactory person who happens to be Negro, he can also refuse the purchase offer of a Caucasian, or of a Welshman, or of a Mathematician, or of another Real Estate Broker.

If Proposition 14 passes, it will be interesting to see how Real Estate Brokers manage to avoid the loss of income implicit in the "absolute discretion" clause.

Harmony Reported In Teen-Age GOP Unit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Wat Takeshita, Marin Political Views of Sept. 25, indicated, "Fighting Gets Hot and Heavy—Even Among Teenage GOP."

For the record, I would like to say that I am an ardent admirer of Mr. Takeshita and his political views, but, unfortunately even a capable reporter like him cannot always get all the facts.

I would like to say that the Teenage Republicans of Marin at the present time are completely in accord with the program that we will follow in this election year. We are giving our whole-hearted support to Barry Goldwater for President, his running mate William Miller, Don Clausen for Congress, . . . George Murphy for U. S. Senator, State Sen. Jack McCarthy, and Assemblyman William Bagley.

Thanks again, Wat, for the publicity, and we sincerely hope that we may again be honored by being featured in your column. I would, further, like to cordially invite you to any of our meetings, where the membership is growing in leaps and bounds.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

BISHOP Fulton J. Sheen tells about a lazy monk who was habitually late for chapel. "We've got to put a stop to this," his abbot admonished him. "Tomorrow morning when you hear the bell I want you to imagine that you are engulfed in the fires and torment of purgatory. That should bring you to chapel on the double." Next morning, however, the poor monk was later than ever. "Didn't you follow my suggestion?" asked the abbot. "Yes, I did," replied the monk, "but I decided I liked it down there."

A VERY absent-minded professor was so lost in reverie one day that he fell into a river. He set up such a holler that four passers-by jumped into the stream with their clothes on and rescued him. Restored to terra firma, the professor thanked his saviors profusely, then told them, "I'm rather ashamed to admit that I've just remembered I can swim."

A PIG and a chicken, alleges W. R. Grady, were promenading down a Fort Worth thoroughfare when the chicken suddenly proposed, "Let's stop in at yonder beanery and eat some ham and eggs." "A thoughtless and repugnant suggestion," was the pig's reaction. "Kindly remember that for you a dish of that sort is a mere contribution. For me it means a total commitment."

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Perhaps Goldwater Offering U.S. Too Much Of A Choice

CLEVELAND—On the basis of a 10-day look at the state of the presidential campaign in the Midwest, these are the significant trends:

1. Sen. Barry M. Goldwater is losing ground in traditional Republican territory which Richard M. Nixon carried in 1960.

2. From big business in Michigan to the farmer in Nebraska and Iowa, Goldwater's greatest vote-losing weakness is the mounting defection among moderate conservatives who normally vote Republican.

3. No one issue, no single Goldwater position, explains this sharp and unusual shift of voter opinion. The motive is undoubtedly mixed. My judgment is that it comes down to the basic feeling that what Senator Goldwater least expected has come upon him—that in offering the country a "choice, not an echo," he is offering too much of a choice. And the conservatives are leaving him for that reason.

4. It is more than likely that this election will turn more on the feeling against Goldwater than on the feeling for President Lyndon B. Johnson. The most noticeable fact in the entire Midwest is that wide support for Johnson is not matched with any deep enthusiasm. Many Democratic leaders will state this privately but they are working hard for the president nonetheless. They are really counting on anti-Goldwater sentiment to win for them.

5. Three factors contribute most to Johnson's strength. Goldwater has his earnest, ardent, fanatical advocates on the far right. But against him are the conservative defections, the nation's tremendous prosperity and his proposal that the president should delegate the use of tactical nuclear weapons to military commanders.

ARE THE POLLS going haywire? I find little evidence to suggest that they are. The Gallup and Harris polls and the surveys taken privately in behalf of the two candidates all point in the same direction — an overwhelming Johnson lead in the nation-wide vote.

State surveys show the same thing. The latest Texas and California polls find the president well ahead. In Nebraska, which gave Nixon 62 per cent of its vote—the highest in the nation — a farm journal poll puts the president in the lead. Goldwater is behind in Indiana, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, and even Kansas — all Nixonland in 1960.

IF THE POLLS are going to be wrong, they will be wrong all the way. They show the country strongly favoring the Democratic Party over the Republican Party irrespective of candidates; they show the voters strongly support Johnson irrespective of party. They show the youngest voting-age bracket—21 to 30—supporting Johnson more than others. The New York Herald Tribune reports newspaper editorial endorsements running 6-to-2 for the president. In 1960 editorially 54 per cent of the press supported Nixon, 15 per cent John F. Kennedy. This is further evidence of the conservative defection.

This gap will undoubtedly narrow somewhat. Illinois leans to Johnson but Goldwater could win. Ohio, which went for Nixon, is Johnson territory today. Here in the Midwest generally there is no solid evidence that the gap will narrow sufficiently to make Goldwater other than a Southern Republican phenomenon with a sprinkling of electoral votes elsewhere in the nation.

GOLDWATER'S TROUBLE is that, thus far at least, he has not made his kind of conservatism seem either desirable or attainable to most voters. His proposed, automatic 25 per cent five-year tax cut does not seem responsible. His happy acceptance of Sen. Strom Thurmond, who does not want to see the civil rights law enforced, seriously impairs the view that Goldwater wants to see it enforced. Everywhere I went I found that the senator's stand on the use of tactical nuclear weapons alienates voters.

If the racial backlash is helping Goldwater somewhat, the nuclear backlash is hurting him more than somewhat.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Problems Worsen In Africa, Asia

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson and his political speech writers apparently aren't reading or don't believe the confidential reports on the worsening world conditions that the Central Intelligence Agency is sending to the White House.

While the president is exposing the nation's voters to a rosy glow of optimism in his campaign speeches, CIA Director John McCone is flooding the White House with reports about the growth of socialist, neutralist and pro-Communist governments in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

McCONE, WHO is finding it harder and harder to privately brief President Johnson as he did the late President John F. Kennedy, is sending these "warnings" through the regular channels and his aides say that he has no idea whether they are getting to the president.

Prepared by the CIA's Board of National Estimates for McCone's transmission to the president and members of the National Security Council, one of these estimates warned:

"Many new nations have adopted strongly socialist methods; some have held to constitutional methods with only great difficulty and others have abandoned them; some have thrown out bloody dictators and some have acquired them. Most profess some form of neutralism."

THIS CIA estimate stressed, "The new European attitudes have given a somewhat greater respectability to the Communist states of Eastern Europe and to the Marxist parties of the West."

It pointed out that, "There has been a realization that it was not necessary to nationalize industry and finance in order to achieve the objectives of socialism, and that much the same ends could be achieved through welfare programs and through proper use of the mechanisms of modern fiscal and monetary systems."

Another CIA estimate bluntly told of the growing disunity and disorder in the Western world, stating:

"Revolution and disorder in the southern two-thirds of the world have been intensifying. . . .

"IN FOUR major areas, Latin America, Africa, the Near East, and Southeast Asia, indigenous political forces—in some cases with the assistance and encouragement of other powers — were overthrowing governments, forming political alignments, and impinging to a degree hitherto unknown upon the concerns and even vital interests of their more powerful northern neighbors. . . . The drift (in Africa) seems to be toward political and social chaos."

The country-by-country analysis of CIA Director McCone and his intelligence experts tells of the growing troubles facing pro-U. S. governments throughout the world as well as the newly emerging nations.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

College Gym Complex Might Not Meet Oct. 26 Deadline

SIX INCHES can sometimes be terribly important. Recently that short distance threatened to foul up the entire plan for a physical education program at the College of Marin.

As it is, the school's new physical education complex, across College Avenue and Corte Madera Creek from the main part of the Kentfield campus, is behind schedule. But soon the school's basketball team will be hoping to start practice on the court in the main gymnasium.

That's where the six inches became so important. Harry Piper, chairman of the division of health and physical education at the college was wondering why the floor was not being installed in the gym.

HE CHECKED and learned to his surprise that the architects were wearing sour faces. The bleachers, it seems, were supposed to be flush with big heating units at each end of the gym when they are folded back against the wall.

Instead, they stuck out six inches beyond the heating units. Apparently they would not stack as indicated in the plans.

If they could be adjusted in location, it might mean a few days delay, Piper learned. If they had to be replaced, it could mean months, and the bleachers had to go in before the floor.

THE BLEACHERS were a different brand than that specified by the architect, although they seemed similar. They cost much less than the specified type, allowing the contractor's low bid.

Replacing these seats would have been expensive for the school and the contractor.

Suddenly some one decided to measure the heating units. That's right, they were six inches too narrow. The bleachers were all right. The change was a simple operation and the floor is now being sanded.

STILL, PIPER has serious doubts the buildings will all be ready by the Oct. 26 deadline, which was granted to the contractor by the district board for 40 days after the original deadline.

Rooms for some activities are complete enough to use, and the men's locker and shower rooms are ready. The women's showers and lockers opened yesterday.

But the big question mark is the swimming and diving pools, both of which look far from completed. Swimming classes have been scheduled by the school, but now girls who registered for swimming classes are playing volley ball on a temporary court set up in a parking lot.

And it wasn't easy to take those parking spaces away for use for physical education classes. Parking spaces are black marketed near the campus. But that's another column.

'Musical Buses' With Pupils Makes Negro Father Sing Blues

NEW YORK — We walked into the office of a New York newspaper the other day and found a Negro friend of ours completely downcast.

"What's the matter?" we asked him.

"I JUST MOVED to a nice section of the Bronx," he said, "into a lovely house on a nice street with grass and flowers and trees. The neighbors gave me no trouble—as a matter of fact, they were very nice to me. The kids were happy as could be. It cost me $3,000 a year more, but I didn't care. It was worth it."

"What happened?" we asked.

"Now they want to bus my kids to school in Harlem."

"That doesn't sound right."

"They figured my kids should be with underprivileged kids so they'll know what it's like. But I told them my kids know what it's like in an underprivileged school and we'd like to try an over-privileged school for a while."

"What did they say?"

"They said I should have stayed in Harlem if I wanted my kids to go to a good school. I can't expect them to go to a good school if I'm going to live in a good neighborhood. That wouldn't make sense."

"THEY HAVE A POINT, you know," we said. "If everyone who lived in a good neighborhood sent their kids to a good school, whom would you send to the bad schools?"

"But I don't know why I have to live in a bad neighborhood to send my kids to a good school."

"Because the schools in a bad neighborhood are bad, and you wouldn't want to send them to a bad school, would you?"

"That's why I moved in the first place," he said.

"Well, you should have thought about it before you moved. Just because you live in a good neighborhood is no reason why you should send your kids to a good school."

"IT'S NOT AS SIMPLE as that. I have a friend who lives in a bad neighborhood, but, because of the bussing, the authorities decided to make it a good school. They fixed it all up and brought in some first-rate teachers. Then they bussed his kids to a good neighborhood which had a lousy school. He complained he wanted his kids to go to the good school in the bad neighborhood, but they told him his kids had to be bussed to the lousy school in the good neighborhood, so the kids from the good neighborhood would have a good school to go to in the lousy neighborhood."

"Well," we said, "if that's true, why wouldn't your kids be able to go to a good school in a lousy neighborhood?"

"Because the school they want to send my kids to is a lousy school in a lousy neighborhood. Besides, how are my kids going to meet any kids from the good neighborhood if they go to the lousy school?"

"Maybe on the bus?" we suggested.

"I DON'T THINK SO. I believe there is only one solution. I think I'll move back to Harlem and send the kids to private school."

Reunion Planned

Marin County alumni of Balboa High School, San Francisco, class of 1939, are being sought for a reunion to be held Oct. 10. Reservations may be made with Eleanor McCabe Ceglarz, 15 Solar Court, San Rafael.

Academies' Applications Are Due Soon

Young men who want to compete for entrance into U. S. service academies next year must act soon to qualify, Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) announced today.

Clausen said applicants should write to him at 229 House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C., before Oct. 15.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission will conduct the test at several locations in the First Congressional District on Oct. 31. A letter of authorization from the sponsoring congressman is needed for an applicant to take the test.

Clausen will nominate 46 youths in the First District. Already, 61 applications have been received, he reported.

Opening Is Set At Dance Co-Op

Another move will mark tomorrow's opening of the 16th season of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Dance Cooperative.

Under direction of Ann Halprin, classes will open at Neil Cummins School, Corte Madera, for pre-schoolers and elementary school pupils. High school students will continue classes at San Clemente School.

Last season's classes were in Larkspur.

Pre-Flight Over

Naval aviation officer candidate Paul Bodenhamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bodenhamer of 133 Meadowcroft Drive, San Anselmo, was recently graduated from Pre-Flight School at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. He will undergo further flight training at Pensacola.

Irregular Market Improves A Little

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed irregularly today amid scattered improvement.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.5 million shares compared with 4.46 million yesterday.

Leading issues showed gains or losses of fractions to a point, generally.

IBM was an outstanding casualty, losing more than 7. Xerox picked up about 4.

As the General Motors strike entered its second week, GM stock and Ford were fractional losers. Chrysler was off about a point.

Steels and rubbers were narrowly mixed.

A generally higher trend prevailed among aerospace issues, drugs, oils, tobaccos and nonferrous metals.

Texas Gulf Sulphur and Hilton Hotels advanced more than a point each. Sunshine Mining rose nearly a point.

Active fractional gainers included Bell and Howell, American Telephone, General Telephone & Electronics, Tidewater Oil and Loral Electronics.

Sunraw DX Oil sank more than a point. Utah Power & Light and Western Airlines declined nearly a point each.

Down about a point each were Eastman Kodak, Air Reduction, Control Data and Boeing.

Fractionally lower were Sears, Roebuck, Consolidated Edison, American Tobacco and Caterpillar.

Rayonnier was up ¼ at 42¾ on 12,800 shares. In another large block, Pennsylvania Railroad was off ⅜ at 37½ on 10,500 shares.

Prices were mixed as trading slackened on the American Stock Exchange.

VETERAN DEPOSITOR HELPS BANK CELEBRATE

Making deposits at United California Bank is nothing new for Mrs. Jessie K. Stetson of Santa Venetia. She started in 1903 at the old German Bank of San Francisco and has continued faithfully through several mergers and name changes. She was one of the first to turn in her deposit at the bank's new office which opened today at Third and Cijos Streets, San Rafael—flanked by bank officials Peter Romberg, Fred Ducato and assistant vice president and manager Earl E. Boutilier. Linda Rosa is the bank teller.

Gold Price Is Rising On London Market

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The price of gold has been rising again on the London market after a long levelling period. And the U. S. government is taking further steps to stave off any attempt of other nations to drain American gold reserves further.

During August when the price of gold was holding steady in London, the U. S. Exchange Stabilization Fund managed to add 23 million dollars to its gold holdings. And the Treasury reserves, which don't include the fund's holdings, held almost unchanged.

In September the price of gold rose three and one-half cents an ounce in London, where it can be bought and sold on the market. This week the price climbed to $35.1125 an ounce. The official price at the U. S. Treasury is $35 an ounce, with purchasers required to pay around eight cents more for handling charges.

The London free market is important because if the price mounts high enough to cover buying charges and shipping costs, the temptation rises for foreign central banks to cash in their American dollars for U. S. Treasury gold. This happened in October, 1960, when the price of gold rose to $40 an ounce and U. S. reserves dropped sharply.

Foreign central banks are permitted to buy gold from the U. S. Treasury. American business concerns also can buy gold from the Treasury for commercial and art purposes, but American citizens can't on their own.

On Sept. 25 the official Treasury gold reserve was $15,460,841,203 compared with $15,583,057,607 the same date in 1963.

The Exchange Stabilization Fund transactions are reported only once a month, and then after a month has passed. At the end of August, the fund's gold holdings had advanced 28 million dollars to make the total, including the reserves, $15,657,000,000. At the end of August, 1963, these combined holdings came to $15,633,000,000, as reported in the Federal Reserve Bulletin. The total had reached its high point in April, 1964.

Hexcel Products Reports Sales

BERKELEY — Hexcel Products Inc. has reported that sales and earnings for the first three quarters of 1964 will be about 15 per cent higher than last year.

W. S. Powell, president, said he expects sales of approximately seven million dollars. Profit will be about $430,000, providing per share earnings slightly over $1.80. This compares with 1963 first nine months sales of 5.9 million dollars, with earnings of $370,000, or $1.57 per share.

Powell said the record will be the result primarily of increased domestic sales of basic product lines and a new product. A rise in foreign sales will also be a contributing factor.

Car-People Ratio

NEW YORK (UPI) — There was one car for every 2.9 persons in the United States in 1962, according to statistics compiled by Volkswagen of America. In Communist China, the ratio was one car for every 19,893.2 persons.

Contract Let On Fuel Cells

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Air Force Space Systems Division in Los Angeles has awarded a contract to the Allis-Chalmers Research Division in Milwaukee to study fuel cell power supply requirements for the Manned Orbiting Laboratory program.

The company is a pioneer in the fuel cell method of converting chemical energy directly into electricity.

The three month study contract affords Allis-Chalmers the opportunity to develop design criteria for fuel cell systems that could supply on board power for the space laboratory, the company said.

Bank Reports Asset Growth

SAN FRANCISCO—Total assets of Commonwealth National Bank of San Francisco were $23,638,559 as of Sept. 30, it has been announced by president Daniel G. White.

Deposits totalled $17,567,687, an increase of $6,496,463 since June 30.

White said that the management and board of the new bank were extremely pleased at the steady growth of Commonwealth National.

Gassing Up

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gas utilities served some 35 million customers throughout the U.S. during 1963 and will serve some 40 million before the end of the decade, according to the American Gass Assn.

Tax Anniversary

NEW YORK (UPI) — This year marks the 45th anniversary of the nation's first gasoline tax—a one cent levy imposed by Oregon in 1919, the American Petroleum Institute reports.

Chris-Craft Firm Buys TV Station

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Chris-Craft Industries, Inc. has taken over operations here of WTCN-TV, Channel 11. Chris-Craft Industries purchased the station from Time-Life Broadcast, Inc., for an estimated four million dollars. The Federal Communications Commission approved the sale on Aug. 25.

The acquisition increases the number of Chris-Craft owned and operated television stations to three. The other two are KCOP-TV, Channel 13, Los Angeles, and KPTV, Channel 12, Portland, Ore.

Giant Castoff Gives Reds Big Boost In Title Chase

Independent-Journal Sports

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gene Mauch has run out of moves, except downward perhaps, but Johnny Keane and Dick Sisler still have time to maneuver their teams into the National League pennant.

Cincinnati's Sisler made a key move last night, deciding to use reserve catcher Jim Coker instead of regular John Edwards, who hurt his hand the night before.

Coker responded with a single, a double and his first home run of the season, sparking the Reds to a 5-4 victory over Pittsburgh that moved Cincinnati to within one-half game of Keane's first-place St. Louis Cardinals, who were idle.

"I decided on Coker earlier in the day," Sisler said following the crucial triumph. "Edwards wanted to play, but I just couldn't let him. He was in too much pain."

Sisler could've used second-stringer Don Pavletich, but he struck out four times after replacing Edwards Wednesday night.

Coker's second-inning single drove in the Reds' first run

Big Weekend On Marin Gridirons

Marin Tars Play Vallejo Tomorrow

Trying something that hasn't been done in 15 years, the College of Marin Tars will play an afternoon game tomorrow in the Kentfield Stadium.

Supplying the opposition for Coach Dick Read's men will be the Vallejo College Falcons. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Read scheduled the game to find out how it will affect attendance. If a large crowd turns out, it's a good bet there will be more home afternoon football for the Tars in seasons to come.

No major injuries were reported from the Marin camp, although there are a few bumps and bruises. The only doubtful starter is guard Bob Stock with a twisted knee.

Jim Morena, another guard, and halfback Rich Bottini missed the first two practice this week because of the flu, but both should be ready tomorrow. Marin will be seeking its second win after last week's 26-6 victory over the Chico State junior varsity. The Tars lost their opener to Menlo College 40 to zero.

VALLEJO 0-1-1

Vallejo has an 0-win, 1-loss, 1-tie record. The Falcons lost to Santa Rosa 24-6 in their opener and then tied West Valley, a new college in the San Jose area, 12-12 last week.

Starting offensive lineup for Marin will include Bruce Thompson and Frank Shippey at ends; Ed Fellows or Chuck Purtle and Kris Barnett at tackles; Mickey Johnston or Stock and Morena at guards; Rich Congdon at center; Tom Zunino at quarterback; Bottini at halfback; John Handly at full and Craig Bond at wing.

Starting defensive platoon will include Scotty Alexander and Bob Washington at ends; Fred Fellows and John Fedorchak at tackles; Congdon at middle guard; Steve Minutoli and Bill McIntyre at linebackers; Jim Schmidt and Bob Phillips, wings; and Dave Cericola and Jerry Foster at the two safeties.

NOVATO, MARIN CLASH; BOTH SIDES HURTIN'

Crutches and canes will be needed tomorrow afternoon when the Novato Hornets and Marin Catholic Wildcats open their Marin Athletic League football season on the Novato turf, at 2 o'clock.

Marin Catholic, decided underdog, has six starters off a thin squad who are limping. Novato also has six boys with minor hurts.

Three Novato guards, Bob Bonner, Roy Richards and Greg Sulser—will be sitting the bench. Tackles Bob Saunders, Steve Coontz and Ralph Sharp are on the doubtful list. Tailback Dick Otis was out of school yesterday so he's another doubtful.

Walking wounded for the Wildcats include quarterback Bill Shine, tackle Gary Wittenmeier, guards Lou Lencioni and Tom Bertrand and ends Jim Tupper and Mike Mullin, all starters.

Novato has a 2-0 practice game record and Marin Catholic is 1-1.

Terra Linda-Tam In League Debut

The lid blows off the Marin Athletic League football schedule tonight in College of Marin stadium in Kentfield when the Terra Linda High School Trojans and Tamalpais Indians clash at 8 o'clock.

Terra Linda, off its fine practice game showing of three wins and no losses, will go into the game heavily favored over the Indians who tied one and lost another in practice game action.

Pete Limm, head coach for the Trojans, expects a rough game, saying: "Tam is as good a defensive club as we'll meet in a long time."

Pete Belden, head coach for the Indians, also expects a hard game, saying: "I rank Terra Linda with the best in the league."

Three Trojan first stringers will be out of the game with injuries — end Bill Hall, pulled groin muscle; linebacker Jim Crisp, charley horse, and defensive back Craig Hill, pulled neck muscle — and another is doubtful, halfback Dave Bowman with a leg injury.

MIXED OFFENSIVE

Limm, pleased with the team blocking and team tackling displayed by his chargers in their last game — 22-6 win over Del Valle — hopes to mix his offensive attack up between the passing of Gary Lieberman and the running of Rick Edwards and Steve Frazzini.

Belden, realizing his need for a juiced-up offense against the Trojans, did a lot of work along the running and passing phases of the game during the past week of practice. "Our team is improving every minute," said Belden.

Bright news from Tam was the return of halfback Gene Howell and end Ron Pederson, both sidelined with injuries from last Saturday's game against Skyline. Tam tied that game 6-6.

Starting offensive lineups for tonight's game:

TERRA LINDA

RED SOX FIRE PESKY; HERMAN NEW MANAGER

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox fired Johnny Pesky as manager today and signed third base coach Billy Herman, 55, as his successor to a two-year contract, terms of which were not disclosed.

Herman was one of the great second basemen in the National League with the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Dodgers, 1931-46. He had his only other big league managerial opportunity in 1947.

He was acquired by Pittsburgh in a multi-player swap with the Boston Braves that year. Under his partial-season direction the Pirates wound up in a seventh-place tie.

Herman had single season managing jobs with Minneapolis and Richmond minor league clubs, then was a coach with the Dodgers and Milwaukee Braves before joining the Red Sox in 1960.

His lifetime batting average was .304, highlighted by a .341 at Chicago in 1935.

SLIM HOPE

Giants Rooting For Lowly Mets

Who would ever have thought the pennant hopes of the San Francisco Giants would depend on the New York Mets?

Yet that was the situation today, as the Giants once more fought off mathematical elimination yesterday by downing the Houston Colts 6-3 for Juan Marichal's 21st victory.

As the Giants prepared to send Bob Bolin, 9-5, against the Chicago Cubs and Dick Ellsworth, 14-17, tonight at Candlestick Park, at least half their attention was focused on St. Louis, where the league-leading Cardinals entertained New York in a night contest.

The Cardinals need to beat the Mets only once in their remaining three games to eliminate the Giants. A San Francisco loss in their remaining three games with the Cubs would result in the same thing.

Chances were, with the time differential between St. Louis and San Francisco, the Giants would know if their hopes remained alive shortly after their game with the Cubs got underway.

Marichal, although not flashing his best form, got more than enough hitting support to carry him past the Colts.

Tom Haller—who has clubbed seven homers in September after a year-long slump at the plate—slammed his 14th with none aboard to kick off San Francisco's attack.

The Giants overcame a 2-1 Colt lead an inning later, with Willie Mays knocking in two runs — his first RBI's in seven games — during a four-run uprising against Houston starter Chris Zachery.

Jimmy Davenport opened the frame with a single, and Harvey Kuenn singled one out later. Matty Alou got aboard when shortstop Soon Jackson booted his easy grounder, loading the bases.

Mays then delivered a single through the middle, giving the Giants the lead. Willie McCovey singled home Alou and Mays rode home on Haller's one-bagger.

Mays also figured in the last Giant run. He walked leading off the fifth, raced to third on a wild pitch and scored on McCovey's single.

The Colts hopped on Marichal for two runs in the first, and were robbed of further scoring by Juan's blind stab of Al Spangler's sizzling liner.

Jackson singled opening the game, took second on a wild pitch and reached third on Joe Morgan's single. Marichal then got the first out when he speared Spangler's shot.

Big Walter Bond drove in the first run with a single, and Bob Aspromonte's grounder to short scored Morgan.

49ers Start Rookie; Bears Slight Picks

Rookie Dave Wilcov will start at outside linebacker for the San Francisco 49ers Sunday against the Chicago Bears.

His replacement of veteran Ed Pine was the only lineup change announced for the 49ers in their Kezar Stadium battle with the world champs.

The 49ers are only slight underdogs to the Bears, who are hard-hit by injuries and last Sunday did nothing right in a 52-0 loss at Baltimore.

Three of the Bears who missed last Sunday's massacre will be ready to go Sunday, however. They include defensive ends Ed O'Bradovich and Bob Kilcullen and fullback Bill Bivins.

Linebacker Joe Fortunato is hurting but expected to play while offensive center Mike Pyle will again miss Sunday's battle. Mike Reilley will start at middle linebacker for the great Bill George, who still may play part of the time.

COMPLETE SHAKEUP

Dodgers Release Durocher, Others

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Veteran infielder Jim Gilliam will become the Los Angeles Dodgers' first Negro coach next season and Leo Durocher will become one of their ex-coaches, whether he lands a managerial job elsewhere or not.

These are two of the changes produced by a complete shakeup of Manager Walter Alston's coaching staff.

General Manager Buzzie Bavasi announced last night that coaches Pete Reiser, Joe Becker and Greg Mulleavy will depart with Durocher and that Danny Ozark, Preston Gomez and Harold (Lefty) Phillips will join Gilliam on the new staff.

Bavasi said Durocher asked for his release "so he could accept a major league managing job." But Durocher wouldn't say where he's going, if anywhere.

Asked about rumors that he will become manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, Durocher said: "My hands are tied. I just can't say."

Gilliam, the National League rookie of the year in 1953, will become the league's third Negro coach. He was preceded by Gene Baker of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Buck O'Neil of the Chicago Cubs.

KEEP IN SHAPE

Gilliam, who will be 36 on Oct. 17, said he'll keep in shape "just in case they might need me to play next year."

Ozark managed the Dodgers' Pacific Coast League farm club at Spokane, Wash., this season. Gomez is a former Spokane manager. Phillips, who will be the pitching coach, has been a Dodger scout since 1951. Don Drysdale, Ron Fairly and Larry Sherry are among the players he signed.

Becker, the Dodger pitching coach since 1954, will become manager at Spokane. Reiser and Mulleavy will become Dodger scouts in the Los Angeles area.

There was speculation the Dodgers released Reiser because of the heart attack he suffered earlier this season.

Reiser, 44, was disturbed by the announcement. "It makes me feel very old," he said. "It's sort of a blow to your pride."

Reiser dressed and left the stadium before Thursday night's game. The other outgoing coaches remained in uniform.

Bavasi said Becker "will be able to work with the Dodger pitchers of the future" at Spokane and will have a job "second only to Alston's in importance."

Bavasi said Alston insisted that Becker be given a good job before agreeing to let him go.

MARIN SPORTS

Boc Beat Dodgers; Cruisers To Race

John Boccabella of San Anselmo hit a run-scoring double in the eighth inning last night to help the Chicago Cubs to a 4-3 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Boccabella, a slugging first baseman who played most of the season with Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast League, also had a single during the evening for a 2-for-4 performance.

Power Cruisers Race Tomorrow

The Sausalito Cruising Club will sponsor the seventh of eight Northern California Power Cruiser Assn. races tomorrow in San Francisco Bay.

Racing will start and finish off Sausalito. Course is around Angel Island and through Racoon Strait on a seven-leg jaunt. First boat will leave the gates at 11 a.m.

John S. Gudelj, commodore of the cruising association, asked for cooperation of fishermen and party boat skippers who see the racers on the course.

He said the competitors try to maintain their entry speed over the bottom of the bay regardless of wind and current. If the racers are forced off course by fishing boats, their performance drops quite a bit.

Gals Tie For Golf Honors

Mrs. R. J. Fuite, Mrs. George Frazer and Mrs. W. C. Wetter tied for low net honors, each with a 72, yesterday in the Ace of the Month golf tourney at the Meadow Club. Mrs. Jack Cooper won the low putts competition.

Winners were:

Class A—Mrs. R. J. Fuite, 90-18—72; Mrs. Al Quilici, 95-20—75; Mrs. E. Peterson, 91-15—76.

Class B—Mrs. George Frazer, 96-24—72; Mrs. William St. Sure, 98-24—74; Mrs. M. E. Wolf, 99-24—75.

Class C—Mrs. R. Hibbett, 100-26—74; Mrs. E. Bunting, 103-25—78; Mrs. J. Woodson, 104-24—79.

Curtis Swimmers Win Meet Honors

Emily Thomson and Ricky DeMont of the Ann Curtis Swim Club led their teammates in medal winnings at the San Bruno swim championships held last weekend in the Crestmoor High School pool.

Ricky won the boys 25-yard butterfly, placed third in the 25-yard freestyle, and fifth in the 25-yard backstroke in the boys 8 and under division. Emily won the girls 13-14 100-yard freestyle with a time of 1:05.2.

Other medal winners for Ann Curtis' team were Tim Taylor, Debby Kneib, Ronda Gotti and Sharlee Taylor.

Roberta Shistar, representing the Marin Pirates Swim Club, won a gold medal by winning the girls 13 and 14 individual medley event with a time of 2:40.6.

Elections Held For Bolinas Yacht Club

Gerald F. Thomas has been elected commodore of the Bolinas Yacht and Boat Club.

Other officers elected at the club's first meeting were M. A. Dowdall, Robert J. Petersen, Ernest J. Mendenhall, F. William Masden, Roderick P. Martinelli and Dr. Carl W. Smith.

BULLDOGS PLAY ST. MARY'S IN PRACTICE

San Rafael High School's grid team will be looking for its first win of the season tonight when the Bulldogs take on St. Mary's of Berkeley in a practice game on the San Rafael field at 8 o'clock.

The Bulldogs tied Jefferson 7-7 and lost to Montgomery of Santa Rosa 22-14 in their first two practice tilts.

San Rafael came out of the Montgomery game without any injuries and should be 100 per cent healthy for the game against St. Mary's, a team that like to go to the air, according to San Rafael scouting reports.

Starting offensive lineup for San Rafael:

Tam Recreation Signup Tomorrow

Registration for the Tamalpais Recreation Program will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. in the boys' gymnasium at Tamalpais High School, it was announced yesterday by Ed Chavez, recreation director.

The program will run on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon throughout the school year for boys and girls 7 to 15. Boys activities include diving, swimming, tennis, trampoline, gymnastics, basketball and touch football. Girls activities include badminton, volleyball and baton twirling.

Fees include $1 per year registration for each family, plus 50 cents per month for each child.

Cal Bears Battle Fired Up Gophers

BERKELEY (AP) — Passing draws the attention yet it could be running which decides the issue tomorrow when a revenge seeking Minnesota football team invades Berkeley to battle California's Bears.

Even though he boasts one of the nation's finest passing combinations in quarterback Craig Morton and end Jack Schraub, California Coach Ray Willsey declares:

"You don't win in college by putting the football up in the air."

So this week the Bears have worked to improve their ground game and bolster their defenses prior to the 1:30 p.m. kickoff.

Minnesota might debate Willsey's statement on passes. Nebraska beat the Gophers 26-21 on a pass in the final going a week ago. The throw slipped through a Gopher defender, hit his helmet and bounced into the arms of a Cornhusker receiver in the end zone.

Minnesota aims to avenge that setback. Even more pungent are the recollections of 1951 and 1952 when Pappy Waldorf's California powerhouses whipped the Gophers 55-14 and 49-13.

This time the Minnesota team doesn't match the image of the big Gophers of bygone years. Ace halfback Bill Crockett, who returned a Nebraska punt 80 yards, weighs just 152. Sophomore halfback Ray Whitlow is just 160.

Fullback Fred Farthing carries the most power and weighs in at 197.

Quarterback John Hankinson, who completed 12 of 25 passes against Nebraska, provides the aerial threat. Minnesota publicist Otis Dypwick says, "He might be our best passer of the modern era."

Along the line, the Gophers average 220 but lost two great rushers when All America Carl Eller and Milt Sunde were graduated.

California's ground game again banks on three 180-pounders — Tom Blanchfield, Tom Relles and Jim Blakeney. If they can gain, the defenses will be opened for the aerial attack.

Last week in losing to Illinois, Morton completed 24 of 34 passes for 251 yards, a touchdown and a two-point conversion.

Morton ranks No. 2 among the nation's collegiate passers and the 6-foot 6-inch Schraub holds the same spot among receivers. He caught 11 for 115 yards a week ago.

Wingback Jerry Mosher provides a swift receiver and little Jerry Bradley came up with one touchdown reception and just missed a second—in the final 27 seconds—when his leading foot came down on the chalk mark at the rear of the end zone.

St. Vincent's '11' Wins Game, 18-6

St. Vincent's School for Boys downed Petaluma Junior High School 18-6 yesterday in Petaluma, as Herman Maheran scored two touchdowns for St. Vincent's and Mike McDaniels the other.

Defensive stars for the winners were Mike Mederios, Stuart Heck and Tom Dandini.

STANFORD AT UCLA; OTHER COAST TILTS

The Stanford Indians will be trying to hand UCLA its first defeat of the year tomorrow night when the two teams meet in a Pacific Coast Athletic Conference gamei n the Los Angeles Coliseum.

In other games tomorrow involving West Coast teams, USC is at East Lansing to take on Michigan State, Oregon is at Penn State, Minnesota plays Cal at Berkeley, Washington's Huskies are at Iowa, and San Jose State will be at Montana State.

The evening calendar tomorrow has Oregon State at Baylor, Washington State at Arizona and Los Angeles State at University of Pacific.

Santa Rosan Ties Course Record In Mill Valley Meet

Bob Waldon of Montgomery High, Santa Rosa, tied the two-mile course record of 10 minutes, 55 seconds as he won a Marin Athletic League - North Bay League cross country meet at Mill Valley municipal golf course Wednesday.

Montgomery also won team honors with 64 points to Tam's 65. San Rafael placed third with 72.

Dave Barni of San Rafael was second in the field of 55 varsity runners. Other Marin finishers in the top 10 were Gregg Sparks, Tam, third; Mark Falcone, San Rafael, fifth; Malcolm Collier, Tam, sixth; Bill McGrath, Tam, seventh; Boots Ferguson, Redwood, 10th.

Pennant Races Tighten As Reds Win, Yanks Lose Pair

after 34 scoreless innings. He doubled and scored in the fourth, then snapped a 3-3 deadlock with his homer off Steve Blass in the sixth. That put Cincinnati ahead to stay.

The 28-year-old catcher has been the property of six major league teams since he reached the majors in 1958, including the San Francisco Giants. The Reds purchased him from Denver of the Pacific Coast League Aug. 23. Before Thursday night, Coker had played in nine games and batted .280 with two runs batted in.

There was no immediate word on whether Coker or Edwards would be in the line-up tonight when the Reds play their next-to-the-last game of the season against Mauch's once-potent Philadelphia Phillies.

The Phillies still are working on a 10-game losing streak and conceivably could tumble into fourth place behind San Francisco.

While the Reds are battling Philadelphia, the Cardinals, winners of eight straight, will play the lowly New York Mets. If the Reds win their two remaining games, the Cardinals would have to win all three of theirs to finish first.

St. Louis can eliminate the Phillies and the Giants from the race by beating the Mets tonight.

In other NL games Thursday, San Francisco trimmed Houston 6-3, Milwaukee whipped New York 7-3 and Chicago nipped Los Angeles 4-3.

In the American League, Detroit delayed New York's pennant clinching by beating the Yankees 4-2 and 5-2, Baltimore defeated Washington 2-0, Kansas City edged Minnesota 5-4 in 12 innings and Boston beat Cleveland 4-2.

Doubles Your Miles Per Dollar
• cuts gas and oil cost in half • 4-Cycle, 4-cylinder, 55 HP • no gas-oil mix • Automotive-type reliability
Don't limit your outboarding to short trips between gas docks! The new Homelite 4-Cycle-55 lets you go twice as far on every dollar's worth of gas and oil. 4-Cycle, automotive-type engine burns gasoline only, not a mixture of gas and oil. Actual tests prove that you get more power . . . more speed . . . more miles per dollar with a Homelite.

Lema's Lesson by Champagne Tony Lema

THE GAME OF GOLF BEGINS WHEN YOU PICK UP A CLUB. YOU CAN HIT A BALL WITHOUT GRIPPING A CLUB AND YOU'LL NEVER HIT IT RIGHT WITHOUT A CORRECT GRIP. THINK OF THE LEFT HAND AS THE PALM GRIP. THE CLUB LIES DIAGONALLY ACROSS THE PALM, WITH GRIPPING PRESSURE APPLIED BY THE RING AND LITTLE FINGERS. THE RIGHT HAND IS A FINGER GRIP. IN THE POPULAR OVERLAPPING GRIP, THE LITTLE FINGER RIDES IN THE HOLLOW BETWEEN THE INDEX AND MIDDLE FINGERS OF THE LEFT HAND. GRIPPING PRESSURE ON THE CLUB SHAFT IS APPLIED BY THE THUMB, INDEX AND MIDDLE FINGERS. THE VEE'S, FORMED BY THE THUMBS AND INDEX FINGERS OF BOTH HANDS, SHOULD POINT TOWARD THE RIGHT SHOULDER.

Olympics—Discontent, Illness, Injury

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

TOKYO (AP) — The usual discontent that always precedes an Olympic Games has broken out. First the French and now the Australians have blasted the preparations for the equestrian event at Karuizawa, 90 miles north of Tokyo.

"Grossly inadequate" said the Australians.

"There is such a lack of space our world record holder could have killed someone," said the French.

The site, however, has been formally approved by the International Equestrian Federation.

Meanwhile, about one third of the 8,000 athletes from 98 nations have arrived for this largest of all modern Olympic Games which opens Oct. 10 and runs through Oct. 24. Each new plane brings scores in vari-colored uniforms to be whisked by busses to the Olympic villages, made over from the big American military housing establishment formerly called Washington Heights.

There were illnesses and injuries, again all according to the pattern. Roy Saari of El Segundo, Calif., world record holder in the 1,500-meter swim, has a cold, was ordered out of the water, and told to take it easy for several days.

John Pennel of Miami, former world record holder in the pole vault, developed a pinched nerve in his back, an old injury, and was sidelined, also for a couple of days. This caused concern on the track team as he is being counted on for a silver medal if not a gold one.

The complaints over the equestrian grounds centered on their isze, the condition of the ground, and the obstacles.

"This complaint is not in regarding the quarantine training area alone," said L. B. Curnow, chief of the Australian mission in a press statement. "The cross country training area for horses out of quarantine is also insufficient, being an area of some 800 meters in circumference with a few obstacles of uninteresting construction enroute.

"To fit a horse for a three-day event an area many times this size and of varying terrain is required. . . if this is not provided the only result can be unfit horses with a repetition of what happened in Rome in 1960 — three unfit horses dead and many unfit to continue. . ."

Col. Bernard Chevalier, head of the French team, told the Japanese Equestrian Federation the training ground was too hard, the cross country course too soft, and the ostacles too easy.

KTIM Lists Football Broadcasts

Seven high school football games and two College of Marin grid battles will be broadcast over Radio Station KTIM this season, station manager Hugh Turner said today.

The two College of Marin games will be against American River and Yuba College.

The schedule of broadcasts includes six Friday night games to be broadcast on FM only, and two Saturday afternoon games on AM. The last broadcast, scheduled for the last week of the Marin Athletic League season, will be announced later.

John Pagliaro will handle the play-by-play, with Jerry Smith helping out. First game will be the Terra Linda vs. Tamalpais battle tonight at 8 o'clock.

Oct. 2—Terra Linda vs. Tamalpais, 8 p.m., from College of Marin stadium; Oct. 9—American River vs. College of Marin, 8 p.m., COM stadium; Oct. 16—Terra Linda vs. Marin Catholic, 8 p.m., COM stadium; Oct. 17—San Rafael vs. Redwood, 2 p.m., COM stadium; Oct. 23 — Yuba College vs. College of Marin, 8 p.m., COM stadium; Oct. 24—Novato vs. Drake, 2 p.m., COM stadium; Oct. 30 — San Rafael vs. Terra Linda, 8 p.m., San Rafael High; Nov. 6—Marin Catholic vs. Tamalpais, 8 p.m., COM stadium; Nov. 13 — To be announced.

The FISHIN' FOOL

Something Fishy About This; Marinite Kills Record Moose

STEVENS

When an insurance salesman named Fish goes fishing and two cops and a fireman go hunting, sometimes it's the Fish that wins.

This was the case when George Fish of San Anselmo, Hub City policemen Bob White and Don Nelson, and San Anselmo fireman Dave Pardee went on a hunting-fishing trip this past weekend at the Grizzly Peak Lookout area near McCloud, high up in northern California.

Fish fished while the others hunted deer. The angler didn't have any luck until 6 p.m. the final day of the trip when he found that the trout were crazy about grasshoppers. When he made this discovery, he quickly landed three beauties in the space of 10 minutes.

As for the hunting? The lawmen and fireman saw only one buck and lost him behind some trees before they could even get a shot.

STAN E. HOOD of 21 Sierra Avenue, San Anselmo has the makings for quite a hat rack as the result of a recent hunting trip to British Columbia.

Hood killed a bull moose whose antler spread of 52¾ inches was nearly two inches better than last year's record trophy in the Bulkley Valley area. He felled the moose just three hours out of camp on opening day of the season, Aug. 29.

The moose weighed approximately 1,100 pounds and dressed out at 750 pounds.

LAST WEEK, you may remember, I mentioned the fairly fast bass fishing, with bait and trolling straight out from China Camp and off Point Pinole. Seems like a good portion of that school started upstream, and another school moved in. Some of the most interesting sport was being had by trolling sans any sinker or with a one ounce lead. Today, I am happy to report that boats out of China Camp and Joe's Landing at Santa Venetia have had fair, even good luck when and if they were wise to the modus operandi. If they reeled in to inspect their lures to make certain the action of the lure wasn't fouled with moss—liable to be quite a lot of moss at this time of the year.

Also, if one fellow is handling the motor, the second or third party should know that by dipping his rod into the water, and holding it beneath the surface while the boat is turning the lines will not be fouled with each other; that his chances are better if the boat-handler zigzags both with and against the tide; that by moving at varying speeds is always a good bet. Fish have been caught while trolling eight knots.

Naturally you will watch the birds to see if they are diving, but many times the fish become hep to the danger and swim at a lower level. The birds can't see them and the fisherman may figure the school has moved on. It's always a good move to consider the possibility that this has happened and go over the same area you were but this time with a one or two ounce sinker. Some old timers claim that the larger fish of a school may be found beyond where the smaller but more plentiful little fellows are.

Quadruple-Header In S.F. Soccer League

The Bay Area's annual soccer season gets underway with a quadruple-header at Balboa Stadium in San Francisco, Sunday.

Two new teams in the first division, the Scots of San Francisco and Gudalajara of Oakland, both up from the second division, will kick off at 3:45 in the key game of the opening day. In the first game of the program the Greek - Americans face Mercury at 10:30 a.m.

In-between San Francisco AC plays Nacional AC at 12:15, and Teutonia tangles with the Vikings at 2 o'clock.

Negroes Not Very Worthy To 'Unprejudiced' Woman

By WHITNEY M. YOUNG, JR.
Fifth in a series)

YOUNG

One day recently on the train a middle-aged white housewife started to explain her views on integration to me. Like millions of other Americans, she said, she harbored no prejudices toward Negroes.

"All men are created equal," she went on grandly, "but I don't understand why they keep insisting on integrating the schools."

This made me wonder if most white Americans recognize just how much Negroes are worth.

In the eyes of this "unprejudiced" woman, Negroes are not worth very much. Her arguments against school integration, it turned out, were directed against sending her children to "slum schools." But, supposedly, there is nothing wrong with sending Negro children to slum schools.

The fact is, the entire controversy over integrating our schools, in New York City and across the nation, brings to light the deplorable conditions in "jim crow" schools. The white woman was tacitly confessing that she had allowed a condition to exist where "Negro schools" had become so deplorable that she wouldn't think of sending a white child there.

Underlying her views is the manner in which Negro children have long been treated by the American public, north and south. They have been written off as second-rate stepchildren, concentrated in the oldest and poorest schools.

Where white children, predominantly of the lower socio-economic group, attend third-rate schools, their levels of aspiration and achievement turn out about the same as most Negro children — far below where they ought to be.

The habit of writing Negroes off as inferiors begins early and stays late. Even Negro college graduates do not earn much more in their lifetime than do whites who go no further than the eighth grade.

The nation has little conception of what Negro manpower and brainpower, freed from the shackles of racism and poverty, could do for America. Most white people persist in thinking that the current revolution is for Negroes. Negroes have much to gain, but so do whites—morally, spiritually and financially.

Negroes today are earning only about half as much as whites, about 14 billion dollars a year. In the opinion of W. W. Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, lifting their income to that of whites would double our current rate of economic growth from two and one-half per cent to five per cent annually.

This year, racial bias in employment will rob the nation of 28 billion dollars. The meager state of Negro purchasing power adversely affects the entire economy.

If the non-white labor force earned as much as their white counterparts, Negroes would spend an additional 3.6 billion dollars on food; 1.7 billion dollars on clothing; 1.5 billion dollars on housing; 1.3 billion dollars on household operation; 1.2 billion dollars on cars and transportation; 1.2 billion dollars on recreation and amusement; 500 million dollars more on utilities, and 800 million dollars more on personal care and miscellaneous items.

Teeners Riot After Ball Game

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Four policement were injured while breaking up an hour-long riot between hundreds of rock-throwing teen-agers yesterday after a high school football game in San Francisco.

Officers said the riot involving students at Lincoln and Balboa high schools apparently was triggered by an on-field injury suffered by a Lincoln player.

Police estimated the number of persons involved in the riot at 3,000. Several teen-agers were arrested.

Harvest Ball Slated For Greenbrae Group

Dinner, dancing, prizes and entertainment are planned for the eighth annual Harvest Ball for all Greenbrae residents, Oct. 16. The event will be held in the Meadow Club, Fairfax, under sponsorship of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn.

Reservations may be made with Arne Dreyer, 30 Corte Comoda, Greenbrae.

DeGaulle Calls For Close Ties

SANTIAGO (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle yesterday declared in a speech at National University that closer ties between Chile and France "could cause an important change in today's international circumstances."

It was the clearest statement of de Gaulle's ambitions that he had made so far in his 10-nation South American tour.

At previous stops, he had spoken in general terms of "independence" and "us Latins" without generating any notable enthusiasm among his hosts.

Art Show Set At San Marin

A Bay Area-wide art show will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday at San Marin, the 4,500-home development of Sunset International Petroleum Corp. in Novato.

Carl Broderick, Novato artist, is chairman of the event, which is expected to attract 150 Bay Area artists, said Clayton Randle, sales manager of San Marin.

On display will be jewelry making, pottery making, sculpting and painting. The artists will set up their shops on San Felipe Way, according to Randle.

SHARON RAE Wilson of Madison, Ind., the only coed among 2,500 Air Force ROTC cadets at Purdue University, holds a model of the B-58 Hustler which she can only dream of flying. Sharon attends military classes with 119 boys but doesn't participate in drill sessions. (AP Wirephoto)

Only Coed Enjoys Air Force's ROTC

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Sharon Rae Wilson, a red-haired freshman, is the only female in Purdue University's 2,500-member Air Force ROTC.

The pert and poised coed from Madison, Ind., says, "The ratio isn't much different than it is in most of my engineering classes."

SHARON IS OUTNUMBERED in the freshman section of the ROTC 1,425 to 1. It was a reluctant Air Force that accepted her enrollment in Capt. Rex Bull's basic class.

She is a mathematics enthusiast and is considering going into aeronautical engineering. She thought the ROTC class would benefit her more than would women's physical education.

CAPT. BULL SAID the military class "isn't geared for female participation, but it's working out all right. She's taking just the classroom work. We won't let her drill, of course."

Bull said Miss Wilson won't be permitted to take advanced ROTC after her sophomore year. All male students at Purdue are required to undergo military training their first two years.

"SO FAR I THINK she'll be a fine student. She's very personable, very levelheaded," Bull said.

"And I believe some of the things she'll learn in the ROTC classroom will be beneficial to her in her chosen field of engineering."

BULL SAID THAT in the past, at Purdue and other schools, there had been coeds in experimental ROTC programs not similar to Miss Wilson's work.

"But the programs never worked out," he said.

Linda Ann Almcrants Will Be Bride Of David DeGere

Mr. and Mrs. Alex E. Almcrants of Mill Valley announce the engagement of their only daughter, Linda Ann, to David De Gere of Mill Valley.

David's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John De Gere of Mill Valley.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and attended the College of Marin. She is now employed in San Francisco. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Giusto of San Francisco and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Almcrants and the great granddaughter of Mrs. Joseph Gaviglio and Mrs. John Giusto, both of San Francisco.

David is also a graduate of Tamalpais High School. He attended San Francisco City College and served four years with the U.S. Air Force. He is now employed in San Francisco.

He is the grandson of Mrs. Thomas Thompson of St. Paul, Minn. The young couple will be married on Jan. 16.

Co-Op Nursery School Names Board Members

San Rafael Cooperative Nursery School has four openings for pre-school children, Mrs. William Zaharin, membership chairman, announced.

New board members are Mesdames Earl Pennington, president; William Zaharin, vice president; Jack Taylor, secretary; Robert Myers, treasurer; Niles Oakley, assistant treasurer; Donald Sherwood, parent education; and Robert Powell, schedule.

Also Mesdames Robert Bogan, ways and means; Robert Wademan equipment; Donald Brower, publicity; Paul O'Neal, council delegate; and Keith Harry building.

Broadway Show Theme Set For Safari Shuffle Oct. 10

The Safari Shuffle to Broadway, a costume dinner dance and show to benefit Rev. George D. Daly, Maryknoll Missioner, will be given at the Meadow Club on Oct. 10.

Hosts Sen. and Mrs. John F. McCarthy have invited guests to come dressed in their favorite Broadway musical roles. Mrs. Lawrence Luchetti is decorating each room of the Meadow Club in a theme from a different Broadway show.

In the six year tradition of the Safari this is the first time that Father Daly will attend the party, as he has been in Tanganyika, East Africa, for the past six years. Previous Safari Shuffles have helped him build a church, houses for leprosy patients, leprosy clinic and houses for the aged widows. This year he hopes to help with the education of the native people of Busanda, Tanganyika.

The Safari Shuffle to Broadway will be a nine inning "Ball" starting at 7 p.m. with cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and music, and the show is set at 8:30 p.m. with dinner and dancing to follow. The show will feature soprano Barbara Riordan, baritone Byron Jones, violinist Hugo Rinaldi, dancer and choreographer Derna Bovee, pianist Phoebe Babo and Ursula McCarthy and the seven McCarthy children.

Variety Of Entertainments In Marin

By MOLLY MARIN

A Hawaiian luau for some sixty guests from throughout the Bay Area was hosted at their Tiburon home by the Richard Friedmans, with fresh flower leis from the islands and a Polynesian menu features of the evening.

Among the guests were the Evan Goldenbergs of Ross, the Harold Farbs and Al Cattans of Greenbrae, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Brownstein and the Fred Whites of Larkspur, Messrs. and Mesdames William Shilling and Nick Andros of Corte Madera, Maury Koch and Michael Geiger of Sleepy Hollow; Kenneth Rankin, Ronald Rouda, Howard Margueleas, Dick Bernstein and Robert Morehead of the Tiburon Peninsula, and the Stanley Narins, Russel Shatzes and Robert Waxmans among San Rafael guests.

A COCKTAIL gathering was given Saturday by the Charles W. Rosenbaums Jr. at their home on Morgan Lane, San Rafael, for a group including Judge and Mrs. Joseph Wilson, Mayor and Mrs. John F. McInnis of San Rafael, and Messrs. and Mesdames William McCammon, Malcolm McVicar, Richard Gross, William Toland, Jack Golyn, Jackson Bennett, Roland Trehearne and Robert Walker and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Buehler. The group went on to the Juvenile Court Auxiliary dinner dance at the Meadow Club.

HOUSE GUESTS of the Patrick Roches of Mill Valley are Mrs. Roche's sister, Mrs. David Stewart and her husband, Dr. Stewart, and their baby daughter, Margaret, from Bath, England. This is a reunion for the three sisters—Mrs. Roche, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Sean Moloney, also of Mill Valley—who came from Dublin, Ireland, originally.

The Stewarts and Roches will spend this weekend at the Lake Tahoe home of Dr. and Mrs. Moloney. The Stewarts, who arrived last week and will leave on Oct. 12, were honored at a dinner given by the Robert Hubers and Michael O'Rileys of Mill Valley at the Huber home.

AMONG THE GUESTS who attended the wedding of Kathleen Bonnell, the niece of Gov. and Mrs. Edmund G. Brown, and William John Dowdall in Sacramento and the reception at the Governor's Mansion were Mrs. Laurence Lowell (the former Judy Wood of Ross) and Mrs. Stanley Wharton (the former Carol Franchini of San Anselmo. Both were Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the bride at the University of California, and Mrs. Fred E. Martin of San Rafael was their housemother during their years on the Berkeley campus.

A DINNER party was given at Sabella's to mark the birthdays of Mrs. John Mardakis and her daughter, Christine, who is ten, by Mr. and Mrs. Mardakis of Larkspur. Among the twenty guests was the host's cousin, John Mardakis of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, who is on his first trip to the United States.

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY party was given on Monday for Gail Noah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Noah of Belvedere, at Sabella's on her 17th birthday. Guests at the celebration for Gail, who is a senior at Redwood High School, included Judy Dalecio, Carol Sinclair, Roxanne Taft and Chris Pflueger.

CINDY SCHELLENBERG, daughter of Capt and Mrs. W. A. Schellenberg of Seafirth, left for Gstaad, Switzerland, where she will spend her junior year of high school at Montesano. Also attending Montesano will be Elizabeth McIlroy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm McIlroy of Belvedere. Both students will return for their senior year at Katharine Branson School.

LINDA ALMCRANTS

NEWLYWED Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Webber Denicke (Mary Michele Greene) will reside in Hereford, Ariz., where he is associated with Greene Palominas Farm, Inc., after a Northern California and Arizona wedding trip. Lawrence, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Denicke of Ross, and Mary were wed Saturday in Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kirk Greene of Berkeley are the bride's parents.

STUDENTS AGAIN?

That is what Miss Darrin Tollin, teacher at Novato High School, seems to wonder as Dr. Roland Vetter and Paul Terry walk by carrying the books of Mrs. Guthrie Greene. However, it's all a stunt to let other parents know that the first meeting of the Novato High School Parent-Faculty Club will hold a "back to school night" at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday, in the old gym. A special membership drive is on and chairman William Waldrop hopes for 100 per cent.

Mt. Carmel Club Begins Marian Visiting Program

"Christian American Life" is the theme planned by program chairman Mrs. Kenneth Wittman for the new year of the Mount Caramel Women's Club in Mill Valley.

Subject to be dealt with will be home planning, interior decorating, cooking, social life in the home, recreation and hazards outside the home; religious guidance of children, with emphasis on child psychology, hygiene and education; and relationships of the home to church, school and public school.

A new program this year will be the Marian Visitors of Mount Carmel parish, organized under the Catholic charities of the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

This group will function under the direction of the Rev. John J. O'Brien and the Rev. Francis Scanlon and Mount Carmel Women's Club president Mrs. William H. Spirz and appointed officers, Mesdames George L. Pavlisin, chairman, J. J. Rasella, co-chairman and W. J. Arnett, secretary.

The purpose of the Marian visitors' program will be visiting by interested parishioners of the handicapped and home-bound aging.

These parishioners must complete a training course in Marian Visiting, which is directed by Mrs. T. D. Walsh, chairman of the Marian Visitors of St. Anselm's parish in San Anselmo.

New officers of the Mount Carmel Marian Visitors have already been trained. Fall classes for the new trainees will soon be offered by Mrs. Walsh.

WINE TASTING PARTY IS SET FOR ALUMNAE

Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club of Marin will host a wine tasting party on Oct. 11, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Roland Trehearne, 1 Morgan Ln., San Rafael.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Philip Lastretto of San Rafael.

Proceeds will benefit the Crippled Children's Society.

Sale Scheduled In 'Barn'

Pixie Parents Inc. will have a rummage sale Oct. 14 and 15 from 10 a.m. at the Barn in the Marin Art and Garden Center. On sale will be children's clothing, toys, books and records.

Babysitting will be provided at Pixie Place, and coffee will be served at the Barn.

Chairman is Mrs. William Glascock, Larkspur. Serving on her committee are Mrs. Roger A. Lowe of San Anselmo and Mrs. Jack Haehl of Corte Madera. Proceeds from the sale are used to maintain the playground at Pixie Place.

Chocolate Stains

When a chocolate stain is in a washable fabric, sponge or soak the spot in cool water, then wash with a synthetic detergent. If a brown stain remains after washing and rinsing, use a mild bleach. But first test the bleach on the hem or other inconspicuous place for colorfastness.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Justice was rough in early Marin, not tempered with much mercy. San Rafael even had a hanging tree that saw a good deal of use in the 1850s. Independent-Journal historian Florence Donnelly, in recounting the story of early justice in tomorrow's Marin Magazine, tells of one convicted killer who was given time off to visit his family just 11 days before his date with the noose. Do you think he returned? Read about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Hanlon of Mill Valley are both artists and they have successfully adjusted their home to make it possible to be creative without "driving to work." A home with two studios and the interesting uses made of them is the subject of one of the feature stories told and illustrated in the Marin Magazine tomorrow. The lives of these two artists will inspire any reader who has creative inclinations. The story is told by the Independent-Journal's Maybelle Speckmann.

Chinese Art World Reflects Changing Political Scene

TOKYO (UPI)—The little jade storks on display at Tokyo's Seibu department store are cute.

They're soapy green and would be a nice addition to anybody's mantle.

Seibu is willing to let them go for 37 million Japanese yen—a cool $100,000 in U.S. currency. But even an American willing to shell this out might find himself in difficulties.

The storks are Chinese art of a high order. Any American who acquired them would have to prove to knowledgeable U.S. customs officials that communist China had not profited in any way by the transaction.

American law forbids U.S. citizens to engage in any kind of commercial transaction with communist China, or even to buy goods of red Chinese manufacture in non-communist countries.

The storks are only part of Seibu's big Chinese art sale, tuned to a current boom among newly rich Japanese for collecting Chinese art objects.

Seibu store officials say that most of their goods were purchased directly from the Peking government at a red Chinese trade fair in Tokyo last May.

The rest, the store claims, came from Japanese collectors who acquired Chinese storks, vases and ivory carvings in pre-communist days, and now are trying to realize a profit on them.

Although many of the goods carry price tags in excess of $1,000 they already are marked "sold." The Chinese art market, always a tricky business, has been complicated in recent years by politics.

When the communists took over China, they acquired a treasure chest of oriental art, although their various enemies had been able to carry off a great deal before the communists closed the country.

Japan occupied large stretches of China between 1937 and 1945. Impoverished by the way, Chinese families sold art treasures at reduced prices to Japanese collectors. The Chinese nationalists were able to get some items out of the country before their retreat to Formosa.

The British, Americans, Germans and French who occupied parts of China in pre-communist days also acquired substantial holdings, sometimes in evasion of Chinese law.

The Chinese communists and nationalists now regularly accuse each other of selling off the country's art treasures for money.

"But I don't think either of them are selling the very best items," remarks a Japanese who lived several years in Peking before the war.

"A lot of the stuff that the communists are selling are copies," he adds. "They're encouraging craftsmen to make them for export."

In pre-communist China, there was little stigma attached to the art copying business. Westerners usually want originals, but among the Chinese the copying of Ming vases or Manchu carvings was accepted as legimate as long as the copies were clearly marked.

However, even copies of elaborate Chinese ivory carvings can be expensive, since they are enormously detailed and have to be made by hand.

In present-day Tokyo, it is difficult for an ordinary buyer to tell whether the Chinese goods he is getting are pre-communist or post-communist.

The top art dealers in Japan today are the ones who can guarantee the authenticity of their wares, and they command a fancy price for their services.

One of the best known of them is Mrs. Kinkazu Saionji, wife of a former Japanese nobleman. Her husband lives in Peking, ostensibly as a member of a foundation devoted to promoting peace in the far east. However, many Japanese call him Japan's "Peking Ambassador."

Mrs. Saionji is interested in an art store in western Tokyo that deals heavily in Chinese goods. There is speculation in some quarters that her stock comes from China, but informed Japanese leftists don't agree.

"Mrs. Saionji is one of the few foreign women who could get in and out of China without having her purse looked into," remarks a Japanese old China hand.

"But if she brings things out, I think they're only small items. She knows just about everybody in the Japanese nobility, and some of the old nobles aren't so well off these days. They're letting go of their Chinese things for money, and I think she's used as a go-between."

He points out that Mrs. Saionji's connections enable her to vouch for items her store handles.

A lot more are—immitation or genuine—is likely to begin appearing from communist China in the near future. China is opening its gates to foreign tourists now, and undoubtedly will try to sell them as much as possible in return for badly needed foreign exchange.

Today is Friday, Oct. 2, the 276th day of 1964 with 90 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning stars are Jupiter, Mars and Venus. The evening star is Saturn.

Indian religious leader Mohandas Gandhi was born on this day in 1869.

On this day in history:

In 1780, British spy Maj. John Andrew was convicted in connection with Benedict Arnold's treason, and hanged at Tappan.

In 1889, 16 Latin American countries were represented at the first Pan-American Conference in Washington.

In 1960, a bomb blast in New York City's Times Square injured several hundred persons.

A thought for the day—President Woodrow Wilson said: "There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

You Cannot Cheat Honest Man When Playing Game Of Bridge

Sometimes I think that bridge is full of poetry.

If this is an exaggeration, you certainly can't quarrel with the claim that the game of [illegible] produces poetic justice.

Opening lead — ♣ Q

The South cards of today's hand were held by a gent who often leaned to his left to stub out a cigarette, at the same time accidentally noticing cards in the hands of his left-hand opponent.

DIDN'T HELP

If that didn't help, he would reach to his right to light a new cigarette and see what he could accidentally find in that direction.

The West cards were held by a player who knew all about South's endearing little habits. Equally important, West could take care of himself.

South ruffed the second club and led a trump, intending to play the ace and then overtake dummy's jack with the queen to make sure of continuing trumps until the king was forced out.

GET BACK

South could easily get back to draw the rest of the trumps, after which dummy's diamonds would be safe.

As West began to play a low spade on the first round of trumps he accidentally turned his hand so that South could see the end card — the king of spades.

"Hold your cards back," South warned West, having already seen the king. And declarer promptly won a finesse with dummy's jack of spades, changing his plan in the twinkling of an eye.

EXPENSIVE FINESSE

It was an expensive finesse. Dummy's ace of spades failed to drop the king.

South had to get back with the ace of hearts to continue trumps. West took the king of spades and led a heart, and East's two heart tricks defeated the contract.

West had trouble keeping a straight face when South stared reproachfully at him.

"I'll never trust you again," South grumbled.

WHERE DO THEY COME FROM?

(we refer to home buyers)

- The largest percentage of home buyers (65.9)* who buy homes in Southern Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families in the Independent - Journal, COVERING 2 OUT OF EVERY 3 HOMES in the county.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED.
- In the I-J, your sales message goes where the GREATEST NUMBER of BUYERS are.
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON PRODUCTIVE AREAS.
- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- SOURCE: "A Survey on the Origins of Home Buyers in Marin County," conducted by the Marin County Abstract & Title Company.

WHAT MAKES A COMFORT'BLE HOME?

We like to think of comfort as a successful combination of new home convenience in a beautiful location, such as the home we call

THE ATHERTON

Our ATHERTON model is located so you have a commanding view from both step-down family room and living room, through sliding glass doors. Massive white brick, raised hearth fireplace, with wood-paneled book-shelves, extends the full length of the family room. The step-saver GE kitchen adjacent to the dining area (with crystal chandelier) is separated from the family room by a wrought iron balustrade. There are 3 spacious bedrooms, 2 beautifully appointed baths. THE ATHERTON is luxuriously decorated.

If YOU agree that comfort is a combination of many things, you'll enjoy seeing the other furnished models.

DIRECTIONS
North on 101 just beyond San Rafael, take Terra Linda turnoff. Continue on overpass to Purity Market and turn left. Bear right on Nova Albion Way to Esmeyer Drive. Continue up Esmeyer Drive to furnished models.

CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NOVATO

RESOLUTION NO. 107-64
RESOLUTION GIVING NOITCE OF PROPOSED ANNEXATION TO CITY OF NOVATO OF UNINHABITED TERRITORY DESCRIBED HEREIN AND DESIGNATED "PACHECO HILL NO. 1" AND GIVING NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE FOR HEARING OF PROTESTS THERETO

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NOVATO:

1. That it has come to the attention of the City Council of the City of Novato, and this Council finds, that it would be for the best interests of said City and of the residents of the contiguous area herein described to alter the boundaries of said City by annexing thereto and incorporating therein as a part thereof under the provisions of the annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939, as amended, certain property situated in the County of Marin, State of California, hereby designated "Pacheco Hill No. 1", and described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

2. That the proposal for annexation and the description of said territory was submitted to the Marin County Boundary Commission, and the attached description is in accordance with the report of said Commission.

3. That Tuesday, October 27th, 1964, at the hour of 8:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers, Novato Community House, in the City of Novato, County of Marin, California, is hereby fixed as the time and place when and where any person owning real property within the uninhabited territory above described and proposed to be annexed to the City of Novato, and having any objections to the proposed annexation, may appear before the Council of the City of Novato and show cause why such uninhabited territory should not be so annexed to the City of Novato. The protest must be in writing, may be filed at any time before the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed annexation, and shall state the name or names of the owner or owners of property affected and the description and area of such property, in general terms.

4. The City Clerk of the City of Novato is hereby authorized and directed to cause a copy of this resolution to be published at least twice, but not oftener than once a week, in the Novato Advance, a newspaper of general circulation published in said City of Novato and in the Independent Journal, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of Marin, said publication to be complete at least twenty (20) days prior to the date set for hearing.

5. The City Clerk is directed to cause written notice to be given to such other persons as may be legally entitled thereto, in the manner required by law.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION AGENCY
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
DIVISION OF HIGHWAYS
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Highway Engineer, Room 5101, Public Works Building, Sacramento, California, until 2 o'clock p.m. on October 21, 1964, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in the Assembly Room of said building, for construction on highway in accordance with the specifications therefor, to which special reference is made, as follows:

Marin County, San Geronimo-Nicasio Road, between 6.2 and 5.1 miles northwest of San Geronimo (04-Mrn-1278-CR), a net length of about 1.1 miles to be graded and surfaced with asphalt concrete on cement treated base.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein.

Plans, specifications, and proposal forms to be used for bidding on this project can only be obtained at the office of the State Highway Engineer, Public Works Building, Sacramento, California

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the State Highway Engineer at Sacramento, at the offices of the District Engineers at Los Angeles and San Francisco, and at the office of the District Engineer of the district in which the work is situated, and at the office of the County Road Commissioner, Civic Center, San Pedro Road, San Rafael, California.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a blank form furnished by the State Highway Engineer and is made in accordance with the provisions of the Standard Specifications and special provisions.

The Department of Public Works reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Abbreviations used in the schedule of predetermined wage rates in conjunction with employer payments listed in the right hand columns are identified as follows:

Employer payments other than those itemized herein, as defined in Section 1773.1 of the Labor Code, are to be paid in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the type or classification of the workmen or mechanics employed on the project.

Overtime, Sundays and Holidays—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workman employed on the project.

Copies of all collective bargaining agreements relating to the work as set forth in the aforementioned Labor Code are on file and available for inspection in the office of the Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Statistics and Research.

Attention is directed to Section 7-1.01G of the Standard Specifications providing for employment of apprentices on the work. Every such apprentice shall be paid the standard wage paid to apprentices under the regulations of the trade at which he is employed. Information relative to the employment of apprentices shall be obtained from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, who is the Administrative Officer of the California Apprenticeship Council.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code of the State of California, the Department of Public Works has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and employer payments for health and welfare, vacation, pension and similar purposes in the county in which the work is to be done to be as follows:

Rafferty Says No To Governorship

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dr. Max Rafferty was quoted today as saying he will not run for California governor in 1966 but will seek re-election as state superintendent of public instruction.

The San Francisco Examiner quoted Rafferty as saying that in his role as "a reformer in education, my name will be remembered a lot longer than that of any governor."

Rafferty has been talked of as a possible gubernatorial candidate under the sponsorship of political conservatives. He has never indicated he would run for governor.

Mill Valley Teen Dance Finds Ho

The Mill Valley Youth Council will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Almonte Clubhouse at Almonte Boulevard and Wisteria Way, with a dance following at 8 p.m.

The teen-agers will meet at the Almonte Clubhouse because use of the Mill Valley Municipal Golf Clubhouse has been withdrawn.

The dance, at which the Chord Lords will play, is for the council's senior members. With $140 raised from last Sunday's spaghetti feed, the council has raised $1,614 for use in youth activities, said co-director Les Mize.

Three Due Honors By Utility Firm

Three Marin County employees of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. will be honored for 25 years of service with the company with membership in the Quarter Century Club at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Flamingo Restaurant in Santa Rosa.

Among those who will receive engraved watches at the ceremony will be Melvin A. Cox of 16 Myrtle Lane, San Anselmo and Trist F. Davis of 630 Monticello Avenue, Terra Linda, and Benvenuto B. Dell'Era of 20 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia.

Re-Seeding Begins In Forest Fire Areas

SANTA ROSA (AP) — An emergency re-seeding program began today for areas destroyed by forest fires in northwest California.

Planes spread six pounds of annual rye grass seed to each of the 28,305 burned acres in Sonoma, Napa and Solano counties, Deputy State Forester C. W. Fairbanks said.

Both Jobless, Jobs Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Employment and unemployment both showed unexpected, seasonal declines in September as approximately 1.7 million teenagers left jobs to return to school.

The unemployment rate for the month—5.2 per cent—was slightly higher than August's 5.1 per cent but below the 5.5 per cent registered last September.

Employment stood at 70.8 million, compared with 72.- in August and 69.5 million last September.

Store Is Planned

FRESNO (AP)—The White Front Stores, a subsidiary of Interstate Department Stores, Inc., plans to construct a million-dollar discount store here.

Terra Linda Grad Now At Notre Dame

Terra Linda High School graduate Barbara Rozenquist is continuing her education at the College of Notre Dame in Belmont. She will major in French at the four-year liberal arts college for women on the Peninsula.

Barbara is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Rozenquist, 909 Las Pavadas Road, Terra Linda.

Joins A.F. Reserve

Gerald Wayne Derosa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernard Derosa of 510 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, has enlisted in the 349th Golden Gate Wing of the Air Force Reserve at Hamilton Air Force Base. He will report for four months active duty Oct. 22.

Movie Shows Wild Time In Hospital

By LES DARD

Here's the current and coming film fare for Marin area movie theaters this weekend:

INTERNS BACK—Michael Callen, an intern, becomes a patient with Dean Jones as the doctor and Barbara Eden the nurse in "The New Interns," opening Sunday at the Rafael Theater.

RAFAEL THEATER

A couple of years ago, Columbia had a big success with "The Interns." So much so that we now get a sequel, "The New Interns," starting Sunday, which features some of the young talent and repeats some situations.

The dramatization is of the personal and professional problems of young doctors in a metropolitan medical center.

One couple, an obstetrician and a nurse both devoted to children, find they can have none of their own.

Melodrama marks the story of a young surgeon whose girl is attacked by three young hoodlums, one of whom later comes under his care.

Featured are Michael Callan, Dean Jones, Telly Savalas, Inger Stevens, Stephanie Powers and Barbara Eden.

Co-featured is "The Long Ships," the big, violent sea saga about Vikings starring Richard Widmark, Sidney Poitier and Rosanna Schiaffino

LARK THEATER

The most spectacular movie-making to reach world audiences this year has nothing to do with Hollywood, big name starts, acting, or sensation.

It is called "The Grand Olympics," a color documentary of the 1960 games in Rome. Filmed by 20 cameramen employed by the Italian government, it took a year and a half of cutting and editing.

Now on screen, this film is not concerned with the games only, but finds telling moments of emotion on the part of the contestants. Whether or not one is a sports fan, he gets an exciting sense of participation.

The games themselves present a splendid parade of athletic achievement. By showing many contests in slow motion, the cameras capture the miracles of coordination that distinguish the winning techniques.

A masterpiece of drama, thrills, suspense, comedy—and heartbreak—this film is one not to miss. And bring the kids.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Two powerful dramas are now making return runs here.

One is "Seven Days In May," a political drama about a military coup in Washington set in 1974.

Taken from the novel by Fletcher Knebel and Charles W. Bailey, it has Frederic March playing an idealistic president and Burt Lancaster as the five-star general who considers him weak and wants him out.

Col. Kirk Douglas, as Lancaster's aide, spots the plot and warns the president in time to stop the overthrow.

"Giant," considered by many to be one of Hollywood's great epics, depicts Edna Ferber's monumental book.

It is the life-story of a genteel daughter of Virginia aristocrats (Elizabeth Taylor) and Texas land baron Rock Hudson. It also stars the late James Dean.

101 DRIVE-IN

The lavish comedy, "What A Way To Go," is now showing. Its cast includes such big names as Shirley MacLaine, Paul Newman, Dean Martin, Dick Van Dyke, Gene Kelly, Robert Mitchum and Robert Cummings.

The title comes from the fact that Shirley is a charmer with the Midas touch and the kiss of death. Every man she takes up with is rewarded with fabulous wealth, then dies before he can enjoy it.

And with each of four passing mates, Shirley becomes richer.

The story is told in flashbacks with Shirley trying to give away 200 million dollars, because she feels guilty. When the government refuses her money, she seeks a psychiatrist.

In the end, Shirley is re-united with the man she said she'd never marry—Dean Martin.

NOVATO THEATER

Starting Sunday is "Viva Las Vegas," starring Elvis Presley, and the rising young star, Ann-Margaret.

Elvis plays a racing car driver in Las Vegas to compete for the Nevada Grand Prix. In need of money, he becomes a waiter at a hotel where he and a friendly Italian count strike up a friendship. Both are rivals in the race and for Ann-Margaret, too.

The big event comes as the story's climax, high-lighted by shots of Hoover Dam and a generous amount of racing thrills.

The co-feature is "Advance To The Rear," a burlesque of some of the pomposities of war, a funny picture starring Glenn Ford, Stella Stevens, Melvyn Douglas, Jim Backus and Joan Blondell, and taking place in the Civil War period.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Starting Sunday is "Robin And The Seven Hoods," with Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr. and Bing Crosby in the best Clambake yet.

The story takes place in Chicago in the gangster era, with Sinatra as a hood called Robbo and Dean Martin as his chief lieutenant. Sammy Davis is another of Sinatra's boys and Peter Falk plays the head of a rival gang.

Barbara Rush in the only big female role is the daughter of gangleader Edward G. Robinson—who puts in a short unbilled performance.

Bing Crosby plays a do-gooder who ends up with both gangs and Miss Rush.

MOTOR MOVIES

Billy Wilder's bawdy, boisterous comedy, "Irma La Douce," starts Sunday, co-starring Jack Lemmon and Shirley MacLaine.

The farce treats tenderly the story of a pretty Parisian woman of the streets who tries to give up her trade because her innocent boyfriend objects.

Lemmon plays an over-earnest policeman who doesn't understand Paris' protective attitude. He conducts a raid and runs a paddy-wagon full of "les girls." Instead of getting praise, he gets fired.

He then takes up with Irma, as her "business manager." But being in love, he determines to reform her. The result is much irreverent farce, great fun watching—for adults.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

With us a second week is Tennessee Williams' soul-searching "Night Of The Iguana."

Richard Burton plays a discredited minister reduced to guiding tours in Mexico. His present tour, includes Sue Lyon—a teen-ager who throws herself at him and a spinster obsessed with the girl and jealous of Burton.

At a rundown resort owned by newly-widowed Ava Gardner, the inner conflicts of all are exposed.

All principals deliver forceful performances in this strangely moving and satisfying films.

FAIRFAX THEATER

This is truly Miss Taylor's show as in 100 dazzling costumes she portrays the Egyptian queen.

The story is told through her grand alliances—both political and romantic—with Caesar in the first half of the film and then Anthony.

Staging and photography are superlative, as is the whole film.

High School Clubs Elect

Brian Kerss is president of the Russian Club; Wendy Jacobs vice president, and Rebecca Hammond, secretary.

Christine Diecher is president of the Latin Club; Silvia Hart, vice president, and Linda Cook, secretary-treasurer.

Bolinas Potluck

Members of the Bolinas Beach Improvement Club will hold a potluck dinner at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the clubhouse. Dr. Jack Powers, president, has asked that new residents of the area be invited to the meeting where plans for the new season's activities will be discussed.
